ENDEAVORERS MEET.

Annual Bi-County Convention
Held in Towanda Yesterday.

MANY DELEGATES PRESENT.

Was One of the Largest Attended and Most Interesting Sessions of the Bradford and Sullivan Union Ever Held.

The 18th annual convention of the Christian Endeavor Union of Bradford and Sullivan counties, was held in the Towanda Presbyterian church Thursday afternoon and evening, and proved to be one of the largest attended and most interesting sessions of the bi-county association yet held. Sixty-five delegates answered to roll call.

The meeting was called to order at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon by Rev. Magee Pratt of LeRoyville, in the absence of Rev. A. F. von Tobel of Athens, president of the Union. President von Tobel arrived shortly after the meeting had been called to order and took charge. Following the devotional exercises, Miss Martha Meredith of Towanda, favored the assemblage with an excellent vocal solo.

The first number on the program proper was a discussion of temperance work led by Mrs. E. L. Eastbrook of Athens. Many good ideas were advanced by the delegates for lessening the liquor evil. Missionary methods were discussed under the leadership of Miss Louise Murray of Athens; deepening the spiritual life by Rev. E. C. Petrie of Sayre; evangelistic methods and motives by Rev. M. V. Williams of Athens. C. E. problems, under the leadership of Rev. Henry F. Keith of Sayre, brought out many good ideas during the interesting discussion. One of the features of the afternoon, was the reading of a paper on "Junior and Intermediate Work," by Mrs. T. B. Shaffer of Sayre.

Evening Session.
The evening session brought out a large number of Towanda people who felt well repaid for their attendance. The evening program was opened with song and devotional services, and music by the Germania orchestra. The orchestra, under the leadership of Edward Walker also played previous to the opening of the exercises. Rev. George A. Briggs of Waverly, delivered a splendid address on "Janus Restored." He is an eloquent speaker, and his address was given close attention by the large audience. Mrs. R. H. Williams sang an excellent solo which was one of the features of the evening.

Before the convention adjourned, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—Rev. A. F. von Tobel, Athens.

First vice president—Rev. H. F. Keltch, Sayre.

Second vice president—Rev. E. C. Petrie, Sayre.

Secretary—Miss Lillian Yontz, Athens.

Treasurer—Miss Mary Wilt, Towanda.

Chairmen of Committees—Lookout, Rev. Magee Pratt, LeRoyville; press, Miss Edna Mather, Ulster; finance, Miss Waltron, New Albany; correspondence, Miss Louise Murray, Athens.

At the close of the convention an informal reception was tendered the delegates in the Presbyterian chapel, during which the Germania orchestra discoursed sweet and inspiring music. As a whole the convention was a complete success in every way.

Is It Worth It?

In reply to the inquiry instituted some days ago by the Village Improvement society as to how many casualties were last year directly traceable to our method of celebrating the "Glorious Fourth of July," a subscriber has furnished the following statistics: One hundred and sixty-four were killed, and 4,249 were injured; many of these maimed for life. The American Medical association asks the question, "Is America's Independence Day at this cost worth while?" Four hundred and ninety-one casualties happened in Pennsylvania. The firing of fire crackers before the Fourth is against the law, but this does not seem to be generally understood.

Conklin—Conklin.

Miss Eva Conklin of Covington, Pa., and Roscoe Conklin of Sayre, were married Wednesday afternoon by Rev. H. F. Keltch, at his home in Sayre. The bride has been working in Sayre for some time past and the groom is an employee of the Lehigh.

Change in Time of Closing Mails.

Beginning June 21, 1908, mail for Lehigh Valley train No. 4, will close at 12:34 p. m., instead of at 12:50 p. m., as at present, on account of change in Lehigh Valley railroad time table. D. M. Turner, Postmaster.

MEDALS AND DIPLOMAS.

Number of St. Agnes Students Received Awards Wednesday Evening.

The following medals and diplomas were granted at the commencement exercises of St. Agnes school Wednesday evening of this week:

For finishing academic course, medals and diplomas were awarded to Arthur Carroll, Charles Barrett, John Crimmins, Thomas Carroll, James Carron, Joseph Keating, Katherine Ronan, Anne Gorman, Marguerite Connolly, Emma Hurley, Margaret Duggan and Winifred McMahon.

A gold medal, donated by Rev. Hugh Ruddy for pupil receiving the highest average, was won by Katherine Ronan, whose average was 97½ per cent. Anne Gorman was second with an average of 96. Arthur and Thomas Carroll were almost a tie for third place, their marks being 93.

Diplomas were granted to the following for completing the Palmer system of penmanship: John Crimmins, Mary Kelly, Bella Archer, Mary O'Keefe.

Medals for having completed the Smith system of typewriting were granted to John Crimmins and Joseph Keating.

Silver medals, donated by Sisters of Mercy to those who completed one-half of the music course were granted to Helen Kirwin, Loretta Buckley, Florence Sullivan, Theresa McMahon and Elizabeth Fitzgerald.

Gold medals, donated by Rev. J. J. Coroner for perfect attendance, were awarded to Anne Gorman, Anna Cox and Margaret Foyle.

Morse—Blossom.

There was a very pretty but quiet home wedding at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Blossom, in Sayre, Wednesday evening, when their daughter, Miss Anna Louise Blossom, was married to Richard D. Morse. The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. Ira Hotelling, pastor of the Baptist church and was witnessed by about 20 of the intimate friends and immediate relatives of the young people. The bridesmaid was Miss Lottie Waite of Geneva, a cousin of the bride and the groomsmen were Charles Stanton also of Geneva. Little Edna Waite of Geneva, a cousin of the bride, acted as flower girl and the wedding march was played by Mrs. E. J. Fearon of Sayre. Immediately after the ceremony a wedding supper was served and Thursday morning Mr. and Mrs. Morse departed from Sayre on a wedding trip, after which they will take up their residence in the shop town.

Ninety Year Old Kills Rattler.

A report from Hammond, in the Wellsboro Advocate, says: "Grandma Mary Shellman of Hammond, is nearly 90 years old, but still vigorous despite her years. Last Friday she went to visit Mrs. John Jordan of Hammond, and while there the Jordan children ran into the house, frightened by a big rattlesnake in the yard. Grandma Shellman here showed her courage and activity, for she procured a pitch fork and attacked the reptile. After a short battle she killed it. Upon investigation it was found to have eleven rattles. On the same day Harry Bennett killed a black rattler with seven rattles near Grandma Shellman's home."

Late Hours, Fatal Scolding.

Intense humiliation, resulting from her being punished for staying out until 1 o'clock Wednesday night, it is claimed, caused pretty 17 years old Ellen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Urban, of the Barbortown section of Old Forge, near Scranton, to commit suicide Thursday morning by drinking carbolic acid. Within an hour after being found lying unconscious the girl died. In another room her father lay dying. He has been ill for some time.

"Monkey Jim" in Jail Again.

"Monkey Jim" Vanderpool, a South Towanda character, who has been in limbo many times, is again in durance vile. He was arrested for drunkenness Saturday night, and resisted arrest to the best of his ability. Burgess Foyle sat upon his case, imposed fine and costs or 30 days in jail. Jim wanted to pay, and so did his wife, Lily May Vanderpool, but as yet she has not raised the necessary amount, and Jim is in jail.

Dining Car On Fire.

When Lehigh passenger train No. 7, pulled into Towanda Thursday afternoon, the dining car on the rear of the train was burning fiercely. The blaze originated from a spark which caught on the canvass on the vestibule. The car was badly damaged before the flames were extinguished with a hose at the upper Towanda station.

Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage licenses were issued Friday: Harvey L. Head of Granville Centre and Jennie R. Leonard of Troy; Seth Loomis of LeRoy, and Henrietta Bailey of Sayre.

REPUBLICAN STANDARD BEARERS

WILLIAM H. TAFT.

THE NEXT PRESIDENT

WILLIAM H. TAFT

OF OHIO.

THE NEXT VICE-PRESIDENT

JAMES S. SHERMAN

OF NEW YORK.

These two Representative Americans were Nominated for the Highest Positions in the United States by the Republican National Convention Held in Chicago last week commencing on Tuesday and ending on Friday.

JAMES S. SHERMAN.

SHERMAN GOES TO A HOSPITAL.

Candidate's Condition Arouses Fears of Outcome.

HAS ATTACK OF GALLSTONES.

Removal of Republican Aspirant For Vice Presidential Honors to Lakewood (Cleveland) Institution Excites Apprehension, and Anxiety—Not Known to Be Dangerously Ill as Yet. Definite Information of Mr. Sherman's Condition Lacking—Return of Old Malady—Nearly Succumbed to Similar Attack Last Winter.

Cleveland, June 23.—The removal of James S. Sherman, the Republican candidate for vice president, from the residence of ex-Governor Myron T. Herrick to the Lakewood hospital excited quick apprehension among Mr. Sherman's friends and leading Republicans in this community who head of the change. Their anxiety was not lessened by the reticence and evasions of those persons who were called upon for accurate and definite information of Mr. Sherman's condition.

Return of Old Trouble.

So far as can be ascertained, Mr. Sherman is not yet dangerously ill, but his condition is such as to warrant fears of what may happen. The Utica congressman is suffering a return of his old trouble, gallstones, an attack of which nearly resulted fatally for him last winter in Washington. Mr. Sherman was in a Washington hospital for several weeks and at one time was given up. That he recovered was said at the time to be due to a sturdy constitution and to excellent care and medical advice. When he left the house his doctors told him that he was completely cured and need not fear a recurrence of the trouble if he took care of himself.

This advice Mr. Sherman did not follow during the Chicago convention. He was about the hotels early and late, and after his vice presidential candidacy began to assume large proportions he was under a strain until Friday. His visit at Cincinnati on Saturday was a hot, crowded and tiresome one.

Beginning of the Illness.

When Mr. Sherman arrived here on Sunday morning and went to the home of Mr. Herrick he felt the effects of and was beginning to show the pressure he had been under. He expected to leave here on Sunday night on a lake boat for Buffalo, to arrive in Utica in time for a demonstration on Monday night which his fellow townsmen were preparing. Instead he went to bed. His departure was postponed until Tuesday night, but when the time came Mr. Sherman was unable to leave his room.

A friend who saw Mr. Sherman during the day found him in bed, but without a nurse in attendance and with a temperature of 99.1-50. He was not suffering any pain or distress or undue weakness, but confessed to being very tired. He told his visitors that what he dreaded above all things was a chill.

The lack of authentic news of the candidate's condition gave opportunity for many alarmist rumors.

Sherman's Condition Raises Question.
Should the fourth befall the question is already being raised here, How would a vacancy on the ticket be filled? Should Mr. Sherman recover, and there is every present reason for believing that he will, the Republican managers will certainly not permit the Utica man to make an active campaign or take any part in the work of the coming summer which will entail a drain upon his strength.

It seems probable as a result of this illness of Mr. Sherman that he as well as Mr. Taft will conduct a "front porch" campaign and not attempt to "swing round the circle."

There has been a report in Chicago for a day or two, lacking specific confirmation, that President Roosevelt contemplated stumping for the ticket in view of the inability of either Taft or Sherman to cover the country from a car platform.

At noon Mr. Sherman was resting easily. He was suffering comparatively little pain, and his condition was said to be better than at any time during the previous twenty-four hours. It was at that time believed that an operation would not be necessary unless he suffered another attack.

Word was sent to the family of Representative James S. Sherman in Utica that the Republican candidate for the vice presidency had been compelled to go to a hospital. Mrs. Sherman and one of her sons left for Cleveland by the first train.

Not a Candidate, Says Mitchell.

Chicago, June 23.—John Mitchell, former president of the United Mine Workers of America, issued an authoritative statement refusing to allow his name to be considered as a candidate for governor of Illinois on the Democratic ticket or as a candidate for vice president with Mr. Bryan.

EX-PRESIDENT CLEVELAND DEAD.

Grover Cleveland, twice president of the United States, died at his home in Princeton, N. J., Wednesday morning, June 24. He had been in poor health some time, but his death was very unexpected.

FORTUNE IN SKIMMED MILK.

Process by Which Rubber Can Be Produced Cheaply.

Through the accidental discovery of a process by which a solid substance having the qualities of rubber can be produced from skim milk an Ohio man has enlisted the interest of manufacturers to such an extent that three offers of $1,000,000 each are said to have been refused by him for all rights and patents in connection with it.

With four Cleveland and Pittsburgh men he has organized a company capitalized at $10,000,000 to be incorporated under the laws of Delaware. It is proposed to establish ten factories in ten leading milk producing districts of the country. The inventor made the discovery in the operation of his candy and caramel factory. While passing electric currents through milk to fertilize it he found in the milk a soft, white elastic substance of experiments resulting in the product for which he has now coined the name "onsite."

Sixteen pounds of onsite can be produced from 100 pounds of "skim milk," the latter having a market value of eight cents to the hundred pounds. It is said to be impervious to acids, unaffected by heat or cold, and absolute non-conductor of electricity, fire proof and practically indestructible.

Haymakers Will Initiate.

The Towanda Haymakers' association, No. 359½, will hold a special meeting in the wigwam of the Towanda Tribe of Red Men next Thursday evening. A number of Tramps who have been around the town for some time are expected to be present that evening and will be initiated into the association.

CAMPAIGN BOOK WILL BE OUT EARLY

Republicans Expect to Issue Work by Aug. 1.

Washington, June 22.—The Republican congressional campaign book will be out unusually early this year, probably six weeks sooner than it was issued four years ago. The proofs are practically corrected up to date on such matter as can be handled before the Democratic convention meets. It is always customary to reserve a portion of the book for comment on the action of the Democratic convention and to include the Democratic platform for the information of campaign speakers. Considerable space will be devoted to the question of injunctions. There will be biographical sketches of the various candidates, and the work of the Republican congress will be given very fully, particularly of the last three sessions.

At the latest the book will be issued Aug. 1. This will give campaign speakers an opportunity to be prepared for an early opening of their work, wherever that is desired. The committee is planning its work with the idea that this year more than ever before the campaign will be waged by means of literary productions, through the press and by pamphlets and speeches and by active work of spellbinders. For that reason the early issuance of the campaign book has been regarded as especially desirable.

KING WILL COME.

Man of Split-Log Road Drag Fame Can Be Secured for Small Sum.

D. Ward King, inventor of the split-log road drag, which has almost revolutionized road building and repairing in this country, can be secured for an address in Bradford county for a small sum of money.

Henry Grant Newell of Orwell, a good roads enthusiast, has been corresponding with Mr. King, and in writing to this paper, has this to say, which is very timely and worthy of great consideration:

"Relative to securing Mr. King, I find we may secure him if the last of this month should not be taken, for $30 and expenses from Rochester, N. Y., and he would, if dates can be secured make five or six speeches for $150. I am firm in the opinion, however, that we need most of all, and I think before he comes, a Good Roads association, which must be started by business men, a very few live farmers, some automobilists, and a few editors and unclassified people whose public spirit bobs up occasionally."

"I am guessing we should get together, the necessary few, pretty soon, and organize; then, for the month of picnics, secure Mr. King."

"Very truly,"

"H. G. NEWELL."

Two Men Enlist.

Two men have enlisted for the U. S. Army service at the Sayre recruiting station, and they will leave there today. They are Frank G. Jones of Towanda, who will join the 50th company of coast artillery at Fort Wadsworth, N. Y., and Michael Morris of Brooklyn, N. Y., who will join the 15th cavalry at Camp Columbia, Cuba.

Alterations Under Way.

The work of altering and improving the interior of Hale's Opera House is well under way, several men having been at work for the past ten days. A professional scene painter is also at work.

INDIAN GRAVES UNEARTHED.

Sepulchre is Found on Elsbree Farm, Near Waverly.

An Indian sepulchre was unearthed on the farm of Fred Elsbree, near Tozer's Bridge, across the Chemung from Waverly, on Wednesday.

Mr. Elsbree was excavating for the foundation of a new silo when he came upon four human skeletons. He at once telephoned Percy L. Lang, who takes great interest in the lore of the American aborigines, telling him of the discovery and Mr. Lang immediately went to the farm to investigate.

Mr. Lang recently furnished a map to the State Ethnological Department in Albany, locating the burial plots and camps of the American Indians, extending to Elmira, and South as far as Ulster.

Mr. Lang found at the Elsbree farm a V shaped trench with the apex at the bottom filled with soil which was foreign to that in proximity to it, composed of the dirt which had been scraped up from the camp fires and also a considerable amount of charcoal.

The skeletons were in a good state of preservation and had, according to Mr. Lang's theory, been buried hastily after a massacre or battle. One of the skulls was crushed in as if from a blow from a tomahawk.

Another feature that pointed to the fact that the burial had not been accompanied by the usual ceremonies was that the skeletons were lying in a horizontal position instead of being buried in a sitting position and also the fact that the implements of war were not found in the grave.

Mr. Lang thinks the skeletons were of Indians belonging to the Andastes Tribe, which antedated the Iroquois in this section.

Prospects Are Brighter.

Says the Sayre correspondent of the Athens News: "The outlook for the employment of more men in the Lehigh freight and passenger shops is now very bright, and by the first of July it seems very probable that many more men will be employed on the present full time schedule. The demand for cars is growing all the time and every storage track is filled with cripples that are in need of repairs. There is now enough work ahead for the full force for several months, and when the work does start up probably all the men who have been laid off will be placed back at work. No definite orders have yet been issued to that effect, but that it will take place there seems to be no doubt."

Won Silver Table Set.

In a contest to decide who is the most popular young lady in Ulster, Miss Lena Davidson was the lucky contestant and was awarded a handsome solid silver table set. The other contestants were Misses Mabel Olmstead and Kathryn Howie, and Mrs. C. Swingle.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portions of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is not but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

LITTLE GIRL COUGHED UP TACK

Two Children Burned to Death as Result of Playing With Matches—Other State News Briefly and Interestingly Told.

Freda Brown of Warren, aged seven years, on Saturday in a violent fit of coughing coughed up a tack that she had swallowed some three years ago. It was black from oxidation and the child had been given up as a hopeless case of tuberculosis.

Constable Elmer Miller of Butler was summoned on Sunday by neighbors of John Nevin, to interfere in a family quarrel at the Nevin home. He did so and after saving Mrs. Nevin from a bad beating she turned on the constable, dealt him a knockout blow with a beer bottle and then fled.

Each voter of Pottstown will be asked by the borough council to send by mail his "yes" or "no" on a proposition to borrow $80,000 for street paving and sewers, and also to add one mill to the tax rate for the payment of interest on the proposed loan.

Zion Lutheran church at Manheim, Lancaster county, had its annual festival of roses on Sunday to pay the annual rental of a red rose to an heir of Baron Henry William Steigell, the founder of the town, who had given the ground to the church, conditioned that such a payment be annually made. Several thousand persons were in attendance.

The "servant girl problem," which has been the despair of the Berks county housewife for some years, has apparently vanished. Since the recent closing of many factories in the larger cities girls, who were earning from $4 to $7 a week, have returned to work at home for from $2.50 to $3.50 a week. Those who are unwilling to do the work of the farm household are trying to get employment as servants in the cities.

In a rude hut made of hickory saplings and covered with sod, Benjamin Lamb, who says he "has never seen many women and does not care for them," has for 36 years lived a hermit's life in the Blue Mountains near Strausstown, Berks county.

A three years old son of Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Teasdale of Minersville, was burned to death on Sunday while playing with matches. The four years old daughter of Martin Beritski of Mount Carmel, was burned to death on Monday in the same manner.

Saturday marked the 43d anniversary of the return of the Liberty Band, of Hazelton, from the War of the Rebellion, and the event was fittingly observed by the members of the organization at their hall on East Juniper street. A number of the members of the organization who played at Appomattox attended the celebration.

Twitted by his grandson for never having ridden a bicycle, Robert Martin, aged 77 years, of Sharon, undertook to prove to the boy that he was not too old to learn. Getting astride the wheel, he started down a steep hill. Before he had proceeded 20 feet he lost control of the bicycle, and ran over an embankment into a ditch. He sustained a broken hip and a severe scalp wound.

Trout fishing that was worth while was recently enjoyed by Ralph Harwick of Dubois. He whipped Bear run, which is by no means a large stream or aswarm with trout. But angling conditions were so ideal when Harwick began to fish that in exactly 25 minutes he had drawn forth precisely 25 trout, ranging from eight to 12 inches in size. Afterward his success was poor.

A ten-dollar bank note passed through one of the Honesdale banks a few days ago containing the following written with a pen: "A fool and his money are soon parted. I am the fool; this is the money."

They still tolerate mutton-loving dogs in Crawford county. The Meadville Tribune says that August Road of West Mead township, has been paid for sheep killed by dogs during the past 15 months the sum of $1,154. Crawford county would seem to be badly in need of a dog catcher who means business.

In competition with five of the great powder companies of the world, Peter A. Kline of Bloomsburg, inventor and patentee of the Kline-Buss smokeless powder, at Huntingdon, Va., demonstrated that his material was the best in the world. As a result of the tests he received an order for $50,000 worth of his product.

A mass of coal at Drifton, a quarter of a mile long, 50 feet wide and 40 feet thick, was shown by the officials of the Lehigh Valley Coal company to the 180 coal dealers of the Central New York State Coal Dealers' association, which is touring the anthracite coal regions. They had pieces of the lump blasted off for souvenirs. It is estimated that this is the largest lump of coal in the world.

The entire family of Perry Witherite, Greenwood township, Clearfield county, was wiped out by typhoid fever within two weeks. On June 4 their little daughter Ina died, and the following Wednesday, June 10, Mr. Witherite passed away. Then Mrs. Witherite gave birth to a child, which died the next day, June 12, and on June 15 she died. Mr. and Mrs. Mark Witherite, the parents of Perry Witherite, are both in the Clearfield hospital suffering from the same disease.

Two Mifflin county girls, Anna M. Miller of Newton Hamilton, and Anna Bratton of Ryde, will be able to start their future husbands on a 160-acre farm. They migrated to Kenmare, North Dakota, five years ago, secured employment as school teachers, and filed claims for 160 acres of government land each. On May 26 last they proved up their claims and came into full possession of farm lands valued at $3,000 each.

An oil well drilled in Eagle Rock, along the Allegheny river, in Venango county, made a spectacular flow Monday, following an allopathic dose of nitro-glycerine. In addition to the fluid tamping of the well, the flow included 260 feet of casing that was blown straight up in the air, where it parted into small sections. The two bottom joints held together and struck the ground end first and were driven into the earth to a depth of 18 feet. No one was injured. The well was shot with 75 quarts of the high explosive on Saturday, in the second sand. It was reamed down 260 feet deeper and given the second shot in the Red Valley sand, and it was the second shot that pushed out the casing.

While John Williams of Artz, Schuylkill county, was celebrating the birth of a son on Tuesday he fell and was seriously injured by dislocating his shoulder and splitting his humerus bone.

Meeta Means of Beaver Falls, aged 14 years, is dangerously ill from a peculiar ailment. The doctors say her blood is turning into water because of excessive use of pop and other soft Summer drinks.

A Philadelphia woman on Wednesday sent $40 to the state treasury as a voluntary payment of state tax on bonds owned by her. This is the first "conscience money" received since Treasurer Sheatz is in office.

A violent storm on Friday night at Pittsburg blew down a portion of the poles and canvas of Buffalo Bill's Wild West show tent, and several persons were injured. A panic was averted by getting the band to play "America."

In a runaway accident on Sunday night, Miss May Longenecker, a Greene county school teacher, had an arm broken and was otherwise injured by the upsetting of the buggy, yet she held on to the horse until help came.

Sarah Fixter, aged two years, is dead and a five years old sister critically ill at the home of the parents near Sharon, the result of eating poison berries, which the children found in a field near their home on Sunday.

Joseph Gerst, an aged resident of Danville, died of hydrophobia on Tuesday, in great agony, the result of a dog bite received eight weeks before. Two horses that were bitten at the same time developed rabies in a short time and were killed and at least 12 mad dogs have been shot.

Mae Jacoby of Reading, aged 35 years, on board a train for Schuylkill Haven on Wednesday evening, was carried past her station and was left off at Pottsville, which so excited her that she fell over in the street and died instantly. She had $2,000 worth of diamonds on her fingers.

It took a jury only a few minutes on Wednesday afternoon in the Armstrong county court, at Kittanning, to find a verdict of guilty against the supervisors of Gilpin township, indicted for misdemeanor in not repairing a road that had been washed out by high water. They made the defense that the township could not afford it.

Abraham Grim of Midway, York county, on Thursday took a peep to a hive of bees that he thought was not working rightly, when the bees got busy and stung him so badly in his face that it has swollen to immense proportions and it is feared complications may arise that will prove fatal.

Ephrata, Lancaster county, has a merchant who only needs to do one thing more to make him the most popular merchant in his town. In hot weather he treats all his customers to lemonade and in winter he serves each with a piece of pumpkin pie. All he needs in addition to make him a millionaire is to advertise.

Those who think the preacher's calling an easy, well-paid one should take a leaf out of the diary of the Rev. Webster, a Methodist clergyman located at Lackawanna, Pike county. He is an old-fashioned preacher with five appointments, whose meagre salary will not permit him to keep a horse. When the roads are dry he rides a bicycle from one appointment to another. When they are muddy he goes afoot. His salary is $400 a year. He cannot afford to marry.

The Pittsburg Playground association is urging an appropriation of $2,000,000 by councils for the establishment of a chain of four large parks and 12 smaller playgrounds in different sections of the city for the benefit of the children.

Edward Crawford of Lancaster, aged eight years, on Tuesday of last week fell and cut a deep gash in his head. On Wednesday he was severely burned with hot lard and on Friday night he fell from a step and was badly hurt.

John Dellinger of Baltimore, found guilty in the Lancaster county criminal court of the larceny of several bicycles, was sentenced on Saturday to six months' imprisonment in the county jail, when he pleaded to be sent to the penitentiary for a year. His request was not granted.

Hundreds of boys were made happy in Pittsburg on Saturday afternoon by the opening of Lake Elizabeth, North Side, as a public swimming place. About 300 boys were on hand at the opening hour to enjoy the treat.

WORK OF THE GRIM REAPER

Mrs. Hannah Barth.

Mrs. Hannah A. Barth died Wednesday night at 11 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. T. Gray in Athens. She was 79 years of age, and her death was due to the ailments incident to old age. She was formerly from Dushore, but had lived with her daughter for a long time. She is survived by three daughters—Mrs. Gray, with whom she made her home; Mrs. Ella Yankin and Mrs. Cora Hoffa of Dushore. The funeral services of Dushore.

Andrew Jackson Crown.

Andrew Jackson Crown, a respected resident of Standing Stone township, died at his home Sunday night at 10 o'clock, as a result of a stroke of paralysis which he suffered Friday night. Deceased was 59 years of age, and was a man highly respected in his community. His wife survives. The funeral will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the house, and at the Standing Stone church at 3 o'clock; interment in the Standing Stone cemetery.

Mrs. Henrietta H. Bowman.

Mrs. Henrietta H. Bowman, who for many years was a resident of Powell, passed away at the home of her son, Portus E. Bowman, at Columbia Station, Seattle, Wash., on June 11. The deceased had been a patient sufferer for several months with cancer of the throat. She was laid to rest in Mount Pleasant cemetery on Sunday afternoon, June 14, amid many beautiful flowers. She leaves to mourn her loss two sons, Portus E. of Seattle, and Ulysses of Hanover, Pa.; two brothers, George and Henry H., both of Mountain Lake, the latter being her twin, and three sisters, Mrs. E. R. Sellick of Granville Summit, Mrs. D. P. and M. B. Haight of Mountain Lake; also six grandchildren.

Mrs. Mary Saxon.

Mrs. Mary Saxon died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. E. Blend in Waverly, about 4 o'clock Saturday morning of the infirmities incident to her advanced years, having passed the 74th milestone in the journey of life. Mrs. Saxon's early home was at Canton, and the body was taken there on Sunday. Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon. Of her immediate family she is survived by six daughters and one son. The daughters are Mrs. E. Robertson, Mrs. Ida Heath and Mrs. F. E. Blend of Waverly, Mrs. M. T. Smith of Roaring Branch, Mrs. F. D. Miller of Pittsburg, and Mrs. Peter Sult of Berwick, and the son, Samuel Saxon of Laquint.

Charles Elbirtus Califf.

The death of Charles Elbirtus Califf occurred at his home Saturday morning at 1 o'clock, following a long illness of gastric stricture of the stomach. He was born in Athens township, in 1846. In 1869 he was united in marriage to Nancy Cornelia Meade. After farming for many years he and his brother, P. L. Califf, ran a large store at Lawrenceville, after which Mr. Califf went into the hotel business, keeping hotel in Elmira, Phelps, and Tyrone, N. Y., and at Gillett, Pa. About two years ago he bought a small farm near Fassetts where he resided until his death. He was a man of many sterling qualities, a loving husband and kind neighbor. He leaves beside a wife, three brothers: J. C. Califf of Gillett, S. S. Califf of Fitch's Bridge, N. Y., P. L. Califf, Oswego, Pa.; two sisters, Mrs. Mary C. Fries of Elmira, Mrs. Mina S. Allen of Portland, Ore. Funeral was held at the home Monday at 10 o'clock; interment at Smithfield.

William H. Boughton.

William H. Boughton died at his home in Ridgebury, near Wellsburg, Wednesday, June 17. He was born in South Creek, Bradford county, Pa., April 5, 1836. He was married to Mary Jane Giese, May 10, 1862, who survives him. Four children were born to them: Mrs. Martha M. Sherman of Youngstown, Ohio; Mrs. Amanda Fuller of Elmira Heights; Ervine F. Boughton, and Harry Boughton, both of Ridgebury; also four grandchildren: William H. and Florence M. Sherman, Floyd Fuller, and Loretta H. Boughton; also one brother, James Boughton, of Cheekerville. He was a soldier of the Civil war and belonged to Company F, Sixth Regiment of Pennsylvania R. V. C., under Captain Daniel Bradbury. The funeral was largely attended at the home Saturday, Rev. W. A. Stackhouse of Chemung, officiated. The choir was composed of neighbors and friends. The flowers were banked everywhere, and very beautiful. The burial was in the family plot at Cheekerville. The services at the grave were beautiful and impressive. With the sunshine over all they laid him to rest on the hillside near his old home, there to await the final resurrection. "What I do thou knowest not now, but thou shalt know hereafter."

George W. Fish.

George W. Fish, one of the best known residents of Waverly, and a man who was interested financially in many business interests in that town, died at 11 o'clock Thursday morning at his home corner Chemung and Fulton streets. Dissolution was due to the infirmities due to his advanced age, being 79 years old. Physical decline commenced about three months ago and was rapid and about three weeks ago his condition became extremely critical. From that time until 11 o'clock Thursday morning death was almost momentarily expected. Mr. Fish is survived by his wife and two daughters and three sons, the daughters being Miss Ruth Fish of Sayre, Miss Alice Fish of Waverly, and the sons being John Fish of Billings, Mont., county treasurer of the county in which he resides, Dr. H. S. Fish of Sayre, and Robert Fish of Waverly, a student.

Mr. Fish was born in Sheshequin township, this county, where he grew to manhood. In former years he was a frequent visitor to Towanda where he had large business relations. He was a director in the First National bank of this place for many years and a member of the firm of Fox, Stevens, Mercer & company, wholesale grocers, which at one time did a large business in Towanda. He was highly regarded by all who knew him, while his wise business experience and excellent judgment made his opinion highly prized by those who had business relations with him. The soul of honor, frank and open in his intercourse with his fellow men, he easily won their friendship and confidence. While he has outlived nearly all of the citizens who knew him there are still living those to whom his death will bring deep sorrow—a sorrow, however, tempered by the consoling remembrance of the warm friendship and upright life of a departed friend.

Mrs. J. Scott Pultz dead. Highly Esteemed Burlington Lady Passes Away in Packer Hospital. Mrs. Ellen Leonora Weldy, beloved wife of J. Scott Pultz, and one of Burlington's best known and most highly esteemed ladies, passed away at the Packer hospital in Sayre, Saturday evening at 10 o'clock, following an operation for pneumonia. She had been in her usual good health until Friday when she was taken ill. Her condition was alarming from the first, and she was taken to the Packer hospital Saturday morning, where it was decided that the only hope rested in an operation.

The disease which had reached a chronic stage before manifesting itself, had made such inroads that there was no help for the patient, and she passed peacefully into the sleep eternal.

DEFENDANTS WON.

Arbitrators Refuse to Award Damages to Mrs. Emily English.

Harrison Lewis, C. P. Welles and G. T. Ingham, arbitrators in the case of Emily and Sylvester English vs. the Waverly, Sayre and Athens Railway company, Friday afternoon, found in favor of the defendant company.

Mrs. English was injured in alighting from a trolley car in front of the Forrest house in Athens on Dec. 6, 1907. She asked $10,000 as a balm for her injuries, and Wednesday morning the case was called before arbitrators in the grand jury room in the court house. Mrs. English, claimed that the car was started too quickly after she alighted, she being thrown against it, thus sustaining the injuries. The street car company set up the defense, that the car was stopped as usual, that the plaintiff alighted safely, but staggered back, falling against the car. After being in session three days, hearing the evidence of 25 witnesses, the arbitrators decided that the railway company was not to blame, and therefore made the award in favor of the defendants. The case will probably be carried into the courts.

Of the 25 witnesses, seven were doctors: For Mrs. English, Drs. C. M. Pratt, S. M. Woodburn, Charles Reed, C. M. Woodburn and T. Ben Johnson testified, while for the defendant company, Mrs. C. H. Ott, D. Leonard Pratt and Dr. Rinebold of Athens. The attorneys were S. H. Smith and David E. Kaufman for the plaintiffs and Lilley & Wilson for the defendant company.

MORE PRAISE FOR THE SPLIT-LOG ROAD DRAG.

Montour County Gives Testimony on an Important Matter.

Montour county also gives its testimony on the split-log road drag, as follows: "Derry township installed several road drags during the first part of this week, made after the King drag as a pattern. The first day several men with teams and drags were started out and when night came, to our surprise, each man put in the best shape about five miles of road. The results were far superior to those obtained with the large four-wheeled scraper and the cost about one-tenth that of the scraper. A saving of 60 per cent. and better work done.

"The old theory was to drag a lot of sward and mud out of the ditch from three to eight inches in depth—material wholly unadapted for good roads—and place it in the center of the highway, where it lies, a soft and spongy mass, to be worn down by the tread of the poor horses and to be washed away by the rain, until the next season finds it back in the ditch from where it was taken.

"With the King drag installed the best material is used—the refined scrapings from the middle of the road. These scrapings the drag takes off the high places and deposits it in the hollow parts of the road, making the bed as smooth and solid as a floor.

"We have no more use for the old four-wheeled machine, except to open ditches, and then we want to be sure that the soft, soggy material taken out is not deposited on the road."

Good Company for a Jaunt.

Vacation time is here again, and when you go on your holiday you will be looking for reading matter to while away an occasional lazy hour.

At such times one wants something bright and entertaining, and, above all, complete. This description covers the July Lippincott's Magazine. The leading novelette by Mrs. John Van Vorst is entitled "Second Quality"—this name applies neither to plot nor treatment, but rather to the stripe of society people, so-called, who are for the most part foreign born. They rally round the hero, an American millionaire, who goes to Europe to spend his money, and to make friends, which he has neglected to do earlier in life owing to peculiar domestic conditions. The story's denouement is novel and dramatic while it fully satisfies one's sense of justice; and the sweet, pure love scenes throughout the narrative present a pleasing contrast to its grosser side.

Osteopaths to Meet.

Osteopaths from all sections of the state will meet at Harrisburg on Friday and Saturday. The chief item of business will be to frame a bill for recognition of the osteopaths which will be presented to the next legislature.

D. A. R. AT ATHENS.

Members of the George Clymer Chapter, D. A. R., spent a delightful day as the guests of Tioga Chapter, D. A. R., of Athens, on Wednesday, June 17, Bunker Hill anniversary and also observed as Flag Day by that chapter. The George Clymer Chapter was invited as a whole, but only 29 members were able to accept the invitation.

The day was a fit one for the occasion, being bright and clear and pleasantly cool. The visiting chapter was met at the station at Athens by a committee from the Tioga chapter and taken by trolley car to the home of its regent, Mrs. C. S. Maurice, where the visiting daughters had been invited to luncheon. They were cordially received by Mrs. Maurice and her daughters and by members of Tioga Chapter, on the spacious and beautiful grounds surrounding her home. After an hour spent with daughters from Binghamton, Waverly, Sayre, and Tunkhannock, and in strolling about the wide lawn and flower garden, the visitors were escorted to the house where luncheon was served. The tables were profusely decorated with sweet peas, while many beautiful and rare flowers were distributed about the lovely rooms.

After an hour or more at the tables there was time to look at some of the rare as well as beautiful and quaint silver, china, pictures, chairs, etc., some of which were heirlooms. Among them were to be seen china of Louis Philippe with the French crown in gold. A quaint silver coffee urn and also a set of china which was once the property of Alexander Hamilton, and a Dresden china chalice once owned by Marie Antoinette, which with the other relics, were viewed with pleasure and appreciation by all.

Some also visited the stone which was placed some years ago by the Tioga Chapter to mark the site of Fort Sullivan which was used by Sullivan's army on the expedition through this country to destroy the power of the Indians. All then followed their hostess to the colonial room in Spalding Memorial library, where the program of the day was given. The meeting was opened by the regent, Mrs. Maurice, in a cordial welcome to George Clymer Chapter, which was responded to by Mrs. Rendall, regent of that chapter. All joined in singing "The Star Spangled Banner," after which the audience standing repeated the Lord's prayer.

Mrs. Maurice then introduced a real daughter, who was received by the members rising and shaking hands with the honored guest. The subjects for the day were: The evolution of our flag and the battle of Bunker Hill. The first subject was treated by Mrs. Merriam of Waverly, in a comprehensive manner. Beginning at the time of the making of banners down to the time of the beginning of our own flag, and a complete history of its evolution to the time of its present form. She was followed by Mrs. Thurston of Athens, with Bunker Hill—a paper of interest—which brought out some points which are overlooked by students of that period of our history. Both papers were listened to with absorbing attention.

At this time the Hon. J. T. Sawyer and William Buck of Waverly, members of the Newtown Battle Chapter, Sons of the American Revolution, appeared with an urgent invitation to the D. A. R. chapters to attend the unveiling of a monument at Newtown, erected by the Sons of the American Revolution in commemoration of the Newtown battle which was fought at that place on Sullivan's expedition. They gave the time of trains, order of exercises, etc., which will be printed later, the unveiling to take place on June 27, in the afternoon.

Ice cream was served by the Tioga Chapter in the colonial room, after which we adjourned to the library down stairs and listened to singing by Mrs. Hess, vice-regent of Tuscarora Chapter of Binghamton, and piano solos by Mrs. Rendall of Waverly, which were much appreciated. The time had now arrived for the Townsda delegation to turn their faces toward the railroad station. After earnest expressions of the pleasure of the day and regret at leaving-taking, good-byes were said and the George Clymer Chapter turned their steps homeward, feeling that the day had been a "red letter day."

Hilke—Spear.

On Wednesday, June 17, the marriage of Fred W. Hilke of Hoboken, N. J., and Miss Fannie E. Spear, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spear of Athens, took place at Hoboken, N. J. The ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Locas, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church of Hoboken. The bridesmaid was Miss Mae Kerr, and John McLean of Hoboken, acted as best man. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the groom's parents, after which Mr. and Mrs. Hilke went to their new home at No. 942 Willow avenue, Hoboken, where they have already commenced housekeeping.

Cheese Factory Purchased.

Says the Wellsboro Gazette: "Spencertown grange has purchased the cheese factory in that place of W. D. Rose of Mansfield, and will convert it into a grange hall. The grange has been acquiring a building fund for some years, and is now in a very prosperous condition. When alterations are completed they will have a very fine hall."

RAILROAD TIE INDUSTRY.

Honduras Railway Using Creosoted Ties—Use of Wood Preservatives.

A railroad in Honduras which has just been opened to traffic as far as Ceiba, 35 miles, was built with creosoted pine ties from the United States. The increased value of wood thus preserved is now well recognized by railroad men. The life of a railroad tie may be greatly lengthened and sometimes more than doubled by preservative treatment. In a humid climate like that of Honduras, a pine tie in its natural state would be quickly destroyed by fungus.

Large railroads of the United States treat with preservatives many, or all, of the new ties put in. One road is said to treat 10,000 a day. The increasing difficulty of procuring new ties, with the advancing prices, compels railroads to make them last as long as possible. It has been estimated that the railroads of the United States demand in a single year the ties growing on a forest strip one mile wide and 3,000 miles long.

It is worthy of note that while creosoted pine ties are being shipped from the United States to Honduras, hardwoods are coming to the United States from that country. A tract of 8,000 acres in Honduras has been secured by an American company which will cut the mahogany and other valuable hardwoods and ship them to the United States.

TWO COURT DECISIONS.

Judge Fanning Rules in Overton Road Case, and in Asylum School Case.

Judge Fanning has handed down opinions in two important cases. In the certiorari proceedings relative to a new road in Overton township, the court has dismissed the exceptions and affirmed the report of the viewers who decided that the road is necessary. S. H. Smith, Esq., of Towanda, represented the petitioners for the road.

In the proceedings to oust the school commissioners of Asylum township, for their failure to provide an additional school at Durrell Centre, the court has handed down an opinion dismissing the proceedings. D. C. DeWitt and S. H. Smith were attorneys for the school director.

Grange Bankers' Convention.

The Grange National Bank Convention of America, will convene in Troy June 24 and 25, with many prominent speakers in attendance, including John Mitchell, ex-president of the United Mine Workers; Hon. W. P. Potter, justice supreme court, and Charles T. Treat, United States treasurer. The banquet Wednesday evening will be served by the ladies of Troy Grange.

Curfew for Tunkhannock.

For the first time in the history of Tunkhannock, a curfew bell will be rung next Saturday night at 9 o'clock, when all children under the age of 16 will have to skidoo off the streets, unless accompanied by parents or guardian. Chief Officer Vaughn will see that the ordinance is obeyed. In Winter the bell will be sounded at 8 o'clock.

Fracutred His Skull.

About eight days ago Harold Kintner of Meshoppen, fell a distance of seven feet and sustained a fracture of his skull just above the left temple, so that it was found necessary to take him to the Packer hospital for treatment. He submitted to an operation yesterday morning and is doing nicely.

Marriage Licenses.

The following licenses were issued Monday: Desmond DeBois Bell Eva May Fleming, both of Sayre; Fred K. Stevens of Standing Stone, and Edna M. Beeman of Wysox; Harvey B. Edwards and Helene Mangold, both of Wilkes-Barre; Harry Carey of Waverly, and Charlotte Charles of Sayre.

Nursing Mothers and Over-burdened Women

TAFT FOR PRESIDENT.

Taft for President. Somehow that has the right sound. It sounds right because it is right and it will be so accepted by the great majority of Republicans. Never in the history of the party has there been so general and immediate acceptance by the people of the convention's choice. This is so because there is general agreement that Mr. Taft is an ideal candidate for the great office for which he has been named and that he will bring to its high duties more and better guarantees of fitness for them than any candidate in our history has been able to present at the time of his nomination. It is also true that more than any other man in public life he has been associated with and committed to the policies of the present administration. William H. Taft is the logical successor of Theodore Roosevelt.

For the office of President, Mr. Taft has conspicuous qualifications as his distinguished career has clearly proven. A brief mental review of the last few years will convince almost anybody that he certainly has been going some during that time: Prosecuting Attorney in his native State, Judge of a State court, Solicitor General of the United States, Circuit Judge of the United States, President of the Philippines Commission, Secretary of War with the functions of a Colonial Secretary, involving some of the most important and delicate duties of diplomacy, the adjustment of the Friars' claims in the Archipelago, the organization of civil government there, the rescue of Cuba from civil war, and with all the work of general adviser to the President on some of the most trying questions of the time.

There have been no years of inactivity in his career. He has been continuously engaged in weighty tasks and each successive service has been characterized by an increasing influence upon vital questions. He has had the training and education of events and now he becomes by merit and by choice of the Republican party the chief candidate for President of the United States.

Such a man can fitly commend the enthusiastic support of the Republican voters. In comparison with the probable nominee of the Democratic party his judicious progressiveness and wide experience will appeal to the confidence of the people. He represents the very best of American manhood. "To define him in a sentence—Mr. Taft is a great brain and a great heart in a great body."

No more startling evidence of the dangers of strenuous life in the rapid turn of New York has been given of late than in the increase of heart disease. There were 149 deaths in one week from heart disease, according to the May reports from the Health Department. This is an increase of 61 over the corresponding week in 1907. Upon the whole the death rate for May was below that of last year, but the disease caused by worry and haste seems to be on the increase.

William H. Taft will be the next president of the United States. 'Tis well.

THE REPUBLICAN NOMINEES.

Philadelphia Press: In all our history only two or three presidents have come to the presidential chair with a preparation as complete or a mastery as visible of the problems of the presidency, the fruit of experience, action and achievement. His nomination follows the proved deeds of a life spent in the public service, where he has never failed in a task and has never disappointed expectancy, high as his own record has made the expectation of men.

New York World: William H. Taft is the next president of the United States—provided the Democratic national convention nominates William J. Bryan. It is an office for which Mr. Taft has conspicuous qualifications. But best of all, his nomination means the end of Roosevelt and Rooseveltism. It means the end of personal government, of autocratic regime, of militarism, of jingoism, of roughriderism, of administration by shouting and clamor, of tumult and denunciation. It means an end of the Roosevelt reign of terror and the restoration of the presidency to its historical dignity under the Constitution.

Philadelphia Inquirer: Mr. Taft is a man of large physical and mental proportions, but lacking in that nervous quality which characterizes Mr. Roosevelt, and which has so often brought him undesired criticism. Mr. Taft is a man whose processes of mind are slow and whose speech is guarded. To him are attributed no aphorisms, no pyrotechnics, but that he is a man of ability, courage and determination needs no demonstration. In abilities, in character, in temperament and in achievement, he represents the very best of American manhood, and if elected, as he almost certainly will be, will be a righteous and sane ruler of the nation.

Every one who is conversant with the way such things are done understands that Mr. Sherman was placed on the ticket to please his friends, to gratify the Republican voters of New York and to help swell the Republican vote next November in a state which sends more representatives to the electoral college than any other, and which has a way once in a while of going Democratic. These are points which bulk more largely in the politician's eye than the expediency of providing against a contingency which will probably not happen. It is true that several vice presidents have been raised to the presidency through the failure of the intervening life, but the chances are so heavily the other way that conventions are hardly to be blamed for their persistent refusal to take them into account.

Philadelphia Ledger: With the president's high ideals and high achievements Mr. Taft is without doubt in fullest sympathy. But his different mental training, his deep-rooted respect for historic law and orderly procedure, his patient and conciliatory temperament, mark him as peculiarly the man to take up the constructive work which Mr. Roosevelt has made possible, and thus to carry on even the debated "policies" with a safe and sound conservatism that will re-establish confidence and win support.

The nomination of James Schoolcraft Sherman, representative in congress from the Utica district of New York, as the candidate for vice president, while it may add no extraordinary personal strength or popularity to the Republican ticket, distinctly emphasizes the conservative impression made in the nomination of Mr. Taft. When it is recalled that the administration influence had appeared to favor a western campaigner of the type of Senator Dilliver, the selection of a typical eastern congressman has increased significance. The convention readily recognized the necessity of making Taft's nomination wholly acceptable to New York without whose electoral vote he cannot be successful. That Sherman was the choice of the New York delegation, made up mainly of experienced politicians, indicates that he is regarded as a winning candidate in his own state.

The appropriation of $50,000,000 by congress for forest reserves and for the purchase of lands in North Carolina and New Hampshire is a move in the right direction. No better use can be made of any surplus money in the treasury than this. Whether the money shall be spent in the White Mountains, the Appalachian Range or elsewhere, it means the conservation of forests and the water in streams, and, consequently, a permanent benefit to all the people of the United States.

The statue of General Anthony Wayne will be unveiled at Valley Forge next Saturday afternoon with appropriate ceremonies. It is fitting that so gallant a commander should be thus honored on that heroic spot.

No state in the union will excel Pennsylvania in her devotion to Republican principles or in the majority she will roll up for Taft and Sherman next November. Bradford county will lend great assistance.

The Democratic National convention will be held in Denver on July 7. Bryan will probably be named as the candidate for president, and that means another drubbing for the one-time boy orator of the Platte.

The uproar of certain organs of reaction against President Roosevelt simply amuse the people when it does not anger them. They know the president stands for their rights.

The scarcity of farm hands may be due to the fact that many unemployed mechanics are absolutely ignorant of farm work methods.

TAFT.

There is no side of American life with which Mr. Taft is unfamiliar, and in all, he has displayed knowledge, courage and principle. His judicial decisions show his grasp and command of the legal and constitutional problems of railroad and trust. He has attacked the boss and the corrupt machine in his own party. He has told the truth to Southern Republicans, and in the North he has courageously asserted, in the face of interested clamor, the necessity of a revision of the tariff on lines which will consider due protection to American labor, the promotion of our industry and the growth of our foreign trade. Nor has our diplomacy a more brilliant triumph than the success with which he secured a settlement of the tangled issues centering about the property of the orders of friars in the Philippines on terms honorable to the United States, satisfactory to the Philippine people and accepted as just and generous by the highest authority of the church to which these orders belonged.

This varied record of success in a career which has everything in it but failure rests on ability, the training of events and principle. Through all his years there has never come near him the remotest touch or taint of self-interest or self-seeking, much less vulgar scandal. He put aside the chief ambition of his life, a seat on the Federal supreme court, to discharge his full duty at Manila. He has united the efficiency of the man of action, the rectitude of the judge and the broad outlook of the statesman. His vision of his land looks farther than its boundaries and sees more than its present needs. Great issues are before the people. The years that are opening before us are to decide the balance and poise between capital and labor, between the efficiency of great corporations and their public supervision, between the profits of our railroad system and the rights of the public, between the development of our industries and the promotion of our commerce uniting the prosperity of the United States within its boundaries and its fit position as a world power, looking out on the Atlantic, the Pacific and the Gulf.

These are new and present problems. They call for the wisdom and desire of the patriot and the open justice of the jurist, the efficiency of the administrator, the single-minded mind of a President who sees the world itself as a whole and knows the international problems of the day. No American possesses all these qualifications by inheritance, by his record and by all he has done as completely as William Howard Taft—Philadelphia Press.

LOCAL VACATIONS.

Everybody ought to have a vacation, but many cannot arrange to take one. There are, however, a large number of people, who, because they cannot afford to have a vacation in the ordinary acceptance of the term—that is, a week or two or more away from home at some Summer resort—give up all idea of having any at all when there is no real necessity for coming to any such conclusion.

What many people need a vacation for is not so much on account of rest from labor as because of a change of ideas. A large section of those who take a regular vacation at some resort instead of getting rest actually tire themselves to death physically while they are refreshed mentally by the change of surroundings and ideas. The ideal place for rest is home, and there are very few Summer hotels which supply the comforts which one enjoys at his own domicile. If a man can therefore combine the advantage of living at home and at the same time of visiting new scenes and imbibing new ideas he can secure a vacation which will do him great good.

This can be arranged by people who cannot afford to go away on a formal, lengthy pleasure visit. If they will manage, as they can, during the hot weather to take a day off in every week for several weeks, and start from home early in the morning for some attractive rural spot within a few miles of their home and return to the latter at night they will find that it has benefited them greatly.

Not one uncomplimentary word can be said of either Taft or Sherman, the Republican color bearers. They are representative Americans, statesmen in the fullest sense of the word and what is better yet, they are men of honor, every inch of them.

Law is the defender of those who are peaceably inclined. We mean law which is the handmaid of justice. It makes matters disagreeable to those who set up their own wills as the supreme rule of life.

Taft is cut out for a president; he is perfectly qualified in every way, in age and manner. The great people of this great nation could not have a better leader, a better president.

The deadly motor car continues to disinterested efforts to reduce the population and create vacancies in more or less important positions.

The newspapers in all sections of the country give the Republican candidates for president and vice president very complimentary notices.

In some respects the man who stays at home and keeps his finger on the world's pulse has a better time than the vacationist.

Quietness reigns supreme in Bradford county politics. The entire Republican ticket will be elected without doubt.

EXIT THE SPLENDOR OF WAR.

The Maxim noiseless gun, if adapted for military use, will necessitate a recasting of the historian's vocabulary. No longer will siege guns "boom" or canons "roar." The "rattle" of musketry will be stilled. Rifles will cease to "crack." Bombs will burst in air unheard, and thanks to smokeless powder, which has already removed the "clouds" of battle, they will burst unseen, also, says the Westchester News.

Thus with the application of invention to armament and through the perfection of field tactics is war gradually being robbed of its spectacular features. In France the drum is almost silenced. Gaudy uniforms have given away to the inconspicuous khaki. The sabre has become useless and bayonet charges are out of date. No longer do combatants wait behind breastworks to see the whites of their foes' eyes before firing. The foe is now invisible on a firing line far away. Nor do generals' aides dash through a hail of bullets with orders. Commanders in headquarters remote from the field of action move divisions by telephone over a battlefield carefully plotted on the staff map, as if playing chess on a larger scale.

So passes the pomp and circumstance of war before the systematized methods of modern military operation. The element of romance is gone with the black gunpowder. Soon only in a Coney Island side show, or the taking of a Port Arthur by fireworks before a holiday audience will there survive any suggestion of the spectacular glory of battle.

MACKAY'S WAY.

So many of our American families of wealth have found it advisable to buy large portrait galleries of alleged ancestors, and are so careful to conceal the humble employments of the founders of their fortunes, that it is a genuine surprise when the truth is actually gloried in. Clarence H. Mackay, whose gift of a statue of his father to the University of Nevada which was unveiled last Tuesday, has chosen to have him portrayed in the garb of the miner, pick in hand, and wearing the familiar high boots of the pioneer.

It was thus that he laid the foundations of his fortune by labor, and it was infinitely better that he should be pictured thus than in the dress of the board-room, of the dinner party or the yacht, or in the "frock coat of statesmanship." That such men of vigorous personality, whatever their origin, can rise, remains the greatest glory of the Republic; and no memorial could better stimulate the Western students who are to enter the School of Mines, also the gift of Mr. Mackay, before which the monument is to stand. And it is pleasant to record that the artist, Gutzon Borglum, has made the most of this rare opportunity.

You can't always tell what will happen, says an exchange. For instance, a man determined to commit suicide. He went to the store and bought a rope, a can of oil, a box of matches, a dose of arsenic and a revolver. He went down to the river and pushed his boat from the shore and waded to where a limb hung over; and tied one end over the limb and the other around his neck, saturated his clothing with oil, lighted a match and set his clothing a fire, took the dose of arsenic, put the muzzle of the revolver to his temple, pushed the boat from under him and pulled the trigger. But the bullet glanced and cut the rope above him and he fell keel first into the river; the water put out the fire and he got strangled and coughed up the arsenic and waded out and he declared himself a candidate for the legislature on the reform ticket.

The Pennsylvania State College plantation of asparagus has been averaging something over $700 per acre annually. The experiment piece of ground, of course, contains a fraction of an acre but the treatment in the way of tillage and fertilization is not more than may be easily given on a larger scale. Scientific farming will bring better results than a gold mine.

A Flushing (N. Y.) family is blest with a youngster who graduated from college with a degree on Wednesday last; came home that night; visited with the home folks Thursday; got engaged to his best girl Thursday evening; published the announcement Friday, and left home and girl Saturday to accept a fine job 500 miles away, where he started to work Monday morning, and he will "get there" every time hereafter if he keeps up the same gait.

Dairy and Food Commissioner Foust has just received reports of the analyses of 350 samples of canned goods sold in Pennsylvania and they indicate that not a single case of adulteration was found in the lot. The samples taken represented every county in the state except Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, which were handled separately. There were all kinds of goods, from meats and meat products to beans, peas, tomatoes and corn. Fruits were also included. The analyses were made by seven chemists and each sample was taken in duplicate.

In every essential that constitutes a great and prosperous state Pennsylvania, maligned and slandered though she has been for more than a generation, leads the column.

"Proper sanitation always improves a town's health and kills some ills." A remark by The Altoona Tribune which has very wide and much local application.

BE AGREEABLE.

Whatever else you are in life, be agreeable.

There is little sense in being anything else. It doesn't pay in any kind of coin to be snappy or sarcastic or backbiting. Whether you are on business, pleasure or wisdom bent you will find the person who goes out of his or her way to be nice to others carrying off the prizes of social, literary or financial life.

It's really no more trouble to be agreeable once you get into the way of it than to be disagreeable. If it does not not come natural to you to say or do the pleasant thing, then practice.

Don't put off that practicing either till another time when you are feeling more in love with your fellows.

Begin at once.

Any one can be pleasant when life is as merry as the fellow who has just been paid a bad debt, but remember:

"The man worth while is the one who can smile when everything goes dead wrong."

So begin to be agreeable the next time existence seems to have just about as much humor as some comic operas. You will be surprised how much better you will feel, not to speak of those who must put up with you.

It isn't really hard to be agreeable, especially if your digestion has not been trifled with. All that is necessary is to think pleasant thoughts and then put them into working order.

If you can't be agreeable, be as agreeable as you can.

You will be surprised to find how soon it will become easy to be pleasant all the time instead of detested and that popularity you once professed to despise makes this world a much more agreeable place to worry along in.

STARTLING REVELATIONS.

Many startling revelations are made in the pages of The Encyclopedia of Social Reform. Under the head of "Accidents" F. L. Hoffman tells us that more than 230,000 persons engaged in peaceful vocations are killed in the United States every four years. From carefully collated statistics Owen R. Lovejoy shows a phenomenal increase in the employment of child laborers—children, that is, between 10 and 15 years of age—in trade and transportation in the United States. The increase is 627 per cent. in girl labor and 181 per cent. in boy labor, making child laborers in gainful occupations one-fifth of the total child population of the United States. It is more than likely, he adds, that the real number is even larger, as the tendency of parents and manufacturers is to misrepresent ages.

More than $1,000,000,000 per annum is shown, under another head, to be the cost of crime in the United States. The annual income of criminals is set down at $40,000,000. The tendency to crime, it is added, is more than two and one-half times as strong among foreigners by birth or parentage as among the native white.

Under "Education" Prof. Edwin G. Dexter gives remarkable statistics which show that the amount spent on education is one-fourth of the cost of crime in America. In a total population of $1,241,246 pupils in American schools aggregate 16,256,038, and their education a pupil costs on an average $24.14 per annum. Yet the cost per capita to the population is only $3.36.

"THE CITY OF PROMISE."

Towanda is becoming better, industrially, day by day. Frost's mammoth factory, the Hawes-LaAnna toy factory, the two silk mills, Humphrey foundry and machine shop, and Blasdel's factory are all running steadily, employing many people at good wages, all of which is poured into Towanda business channels.

The knowledge that the knitting mill on Plank Road street, is to be enlarged and started, is indeed cheering news to those who have a heart interest in the county seat, for it adds another industry, and will give employment to about 75 people.

The Review has named Towanda the "City of Promise," and while many have ridiculed the idea that the old town had a future, yet they must admit that there is more in the future than they dreamed. The future is but a promise no matter what you plan upon. Tomorrow is but a promise, and that which we look forward to is but a prom. Towanda is a true "City of Promise," and don't let anyone discourage you in the happy belief.

In the month of May only 42,000 immigrants landed in this country; 75,000 aliens sailed for their old homes. For the same month last year the arrivals were 198,000 and the departures were 33,000. Since last October, when the panic took effect, 550,000 aliens have left these shores and only about 150,000 have arrived. The departure of so great an army of unskilled labor served to reduce materially the hard-time conditions of many localities. The half million would have been added to the unemployed, and this would have meant for most of them an eventual approach to destitution. The steamship companies expect the steerage traffic to continue in its present swing for some time. When the return of prosperity is assured it should show the old balance the other way. Never in previous history has the automatic regulation of immigration and emigration been so strikingly exhibited as by the port figures for the last eight months.—New York World.

Taft and Sherman, and continuous prosperity.

THE PASSING VETERANS.

The Chicago Record-Herald declares that the ranks of the Grand Army of the Republic are rapidly thinning and its members passing beyond the borders. It gives the following table to illustrate the fact. In 17 years, from 1890 when the membership was largest to 1906, the last year for which statistics are available. Here is the table:

Year	Members	Deaths
1890	409,489	5,476
1891	407,781	5,963
1892	399,880	6,404
1893	397,223	7,002
1894	369,083	7,283
1895	357,629	7,368
1896	340,610	7,292
1897	319,456	7,515
1898	305,603	8,383
1899	287,891	7,994
1900	276,662	7,790
1901	269,507	8,166
1902	263,745	8,299
1903	256,510	8,366
1904	246,261	9,029
1905	232,455	9,152
1906	229,932	9,052

Thus in 17 years the ranks have diminished by nearly one-half. Before many years the veterans of the great war will have saluted the flag they love so well and fought so nobly to sustain for the last time.

As the years pass, let us give the gallant survivors full heed of honor and strive to make their increasing days as full of God's sunshine as possible. Richly they have earned it; willingly let us give it.

EMERGENCY CURRENCY ACT.

Secretary Calteloy of the Treasury Department is losing no time in carrying the new Emergency Currency Act into effect. In a circular he sets forth in detail the methods to be followed by National currency associations. All institutions may avail themselves of the opportunity of gaining such if they comply with the requirements of unemployed capital and 20 per cent. of surplus, by being assigned to associations in contiguous states by the secretary.

Provision is made by the treasury department to guard against any group or clique of banks getting control of the associations and excluding other institutions. Provision is also made to serve the needs of banks in sparsely settled and remote territory. The treasury circular clears up many points not made perfectly clear in the new currency bill. Emergency circulation can be retired, for instance, without restriction as to the amount, in any given month. All public depositories bear interest, and interest is also charged at a rate of one per cent. on public monies in regular depositories in excess of the amount needed for public business.

It is a pretty good idea never to leave a horse untied in a public thoroughfare. It is not safe to leave any horse untied for an instant. The owner of a runaway horse is responsible for all damage done, therefore it is always well to be on the safe side.

The editor in proportion to his means does more for his town than any other man, says the East Prairie Eagle. He ought to be supported, not because you like him or admire his writing, but because a local paper is the best investment a community can make. It may not be crowded with great ideas, but financially it is precher. Today editors do more for more benefit than both teacher and less pay than any other men on earth.

Fame tells of a tailor and clothier who resolved not to waste his money in newspaper advertising upon the occasion of opening a new store in Harlem. Instead he hired a brass band to play in front of the establishment all day to draw the crowds. The crowds came, of course. Small boys were very much in evidence. Idlers of the type who hold down benches in the city squares were likewise on hand in force. Some few persons who looked as if they had the price of a suit of clothes were also attracted by the music, but not many of them went in to buy. As a popular entertainment the concert was a great success. As a scheme to sell clothing it was a flat failure. A big noise is not necessarily an advertisement. Even in newspapers brass band methods are likely to fail.

Says the Waverly correspondent of the Sayre Times-Record: "This is surely an off-year for the marriage crop in Tioga county, but 25 licenses having been issued up to the present time. The same condition of affairs are said to exist in other counties of the state and it is supposed that the new license law which went into effect on Jan. 1, is the cause of it all."

PRETTY HOME WEDDING.

Harvey A. McGill and Miss Lena C. Gerould United in Marriage.

The North Main street home of Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon C. Gerould was the scene of a quiet but very pretty wedding yesterday morning, when their only daughter, Miss Lena C. Gerould, became the bride of Harvey A. McGill. The ceremony was performed at 10:30, Rev. E. A. Gernant, rector of Christ Church, officiating, in the presence of only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties.

The interior of the Gerould home was tastefully decorated for the occasion, the scene being an unusually pretty one. The bride couple was attended by Howard A. McGill, brother of the groom as best man, and Miss Florence Brownell of Williamsport, as bridesmaid. The bride wore a becoming traveling suit of blue material and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaid's gown was of brown pongee silk, and she carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. McGill stole away from a large number of friends who were waiting in front of the Gerould home to greet them, entered an automobile which was in waiting on William street, and were conveyed to Waverly where they boarded a train for a wedding journey to New York and Atlantic City. On their return they will take up their residence with the groom's mother, Mrs. Fanny McGill, on Second street. Mr. McGill holds a clerkship in M. J. Long's grocery, where he has been employed some time. His bride was for a long time an efficient and obliging operator in the Bell Telephone exchange. They are two of Towanda's most estimable and worthy young people, and have a host of friends to invoke life's richest blessings.

Coleman-Nash.

With nuptial high mass celebrated by Rev. Father Hickey of Rochester, a cousin of the bride, Miss Elizabeth Frances Nash, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Nash of Sayre, was married to Francis P. Coleman also of Sayre, at the Church of the Epiphany in Sayre at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning. After the nuptial high mass, Rev. J. L. Shanley of the Church of the Epiphany, read the marriage service which united the lives of the young people. The bridesmaid was Miss Agnes Nash, a sister of the bride and the groomsmen was Thomas Carroll, a cousin of the groom. The ushers were John Nash, Jr., a brother of the bride, and P. H. O'Shea, both of Sayre. The bride was attired in a gown of white chiffon over white silk and wore a white hat. The bridesmaid was attired in a white satin gown. The bride's traveling gown was a blue suit with blue hat to match. Immediately after the ceremony the wedding party and the guests were driven to the home of the bride's parents, corner of Elmer avenue and Chemung street, where at noon a wedding repast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Coleman will take a wedding trip to Philadelphia, Washington and New York after which they will take up their residence in Sayre.

The groom is well known in Sayre and Towanda. He went from Towanda to Sayre about six years ago and is now in the employ of the Lehigh Valley. The bride who is popular socially, was for some time employed as a stenographer in the office of the Sayre Land company. Among those present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Brick and daughter, Helen, and Misses Sattler and Alice O'Connell of Binghamton, Mrs. James O'Connell and William Early, Miss Anna Early and William McCain of Ovid, N. Y., Mrs. P. M. Dinan and daughter, Rose, of Geneva, Mrs. Ellen Croft and Mrs. Max Manning of Smithboro, Mrs. D. Leary of Waverly, Mrs. E. Coleman and daughter, Agnes, Mr. and Mrs. John Coleman and Mr. and Mrs. James Coleman, Miss Lizzie Carroll and William Bolan of Towanda, Miss Rose Carroll of Laddsburg, Mrs. T. F. Bahan, Misses Margaret and Mary Mack and Michael Mack of Elmira, and Rev. James A. Hickey of Rochester.

Coveney-Crowley.

Miss Teresa Coveney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Coveney of North Waverly, and Arthur Crowley of Sayre, were married at St. James Roman Catholic church in Waverly, at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning, the bride being attended by her sister as bride of honor and the best man being a brother of the groom. The services were in charge of Rev. M. F. O'Riley of South Waverly, owing to the absence of the pastor of St. James church. After a wedding journey to Niagara Falls and other points of interest in the northern part of the state Mr. and Mrs. Crowley will return to Sayre where they expect to reside.

C. E. Convention Today.

The annual Bi-County Christian Endeavor convention will be held in the First Presbyterian church this afternoon at which time officers will be elected for the ensuing year. About 50 delegates representing Bradford and Sullivan counties will be in attendance. The afternoon session opens at 1:30 and the evening session at 7:30.

Youngest Graduate.

Thomas Carroll, a member of the graduating class of St. Agnes school, who received his diploma on Wednesday evening, is without doubt, the youngest person to ever graduate from a Bradford county school. He is but 15 years of age, having but recently observed his 15th anniversary.

ALUMNI BANQUET.

Graduates of St. Agnes Enjoyed Feast Wednesday Evening.

After the commencement exercises and entertainment Wednesday evening, the Alumni of St. Agnes school, held their annual banquet in the large dining room of the school. The dining hall was beautifully decorated in purple and canary, the colors of the class of 1908, and also in red and white, the colors of the school, with "Old Glory" overshadowing all.

The caterers were Mrs. T. Coleman and Peter Allen, and the Alumni, with one accord, will recommend them as first class.

Among those from out of town were Paul Cullinan of New York City, and Charles Brennan of Susquehanna. Both received a warm welcome. Regrets were received from many members who occupy positions of trust in far off cities. The members of St. Agnes Alumni will welcome the time when the City of Promise will be prosperous enough to require the energy and brains that it produces for the use and development of other towns.

Prayer was offered by Rev. A. J. Brennan, chancellor of the Scranton Diocese and a former pupil. A toast to the class of 1908 was given by Rev. Hugh Ruddy and then the members proceeded to enjoy themselves as young people can.

After the repast, the society adjourned to the auditorium where the annual business meeting of the society was held. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mary Dalton; vice president, Mary Gorman; treasurer, Mary Bustin; secretary, Thomas Carroll.

WYALUSING HAPPENINGS.

News Briefs From the "Village of Homes" Taken From the Rocket.

The following interesting news items pertaining to the people of Wyalusing were taken from this week's Rocket, the lively weekly newspaper published in the "Village of Homes."

Asa Chamberlain has been giving his home on Vaughan Hill a thorough remodeling, making of it one of the neatest and most commodious farm houses in this section of the state.

Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Fuller are at Wellesley, Mass., to attend the commencement exercises of Wellesley college, where their daughter, Miss Ernestine, graduates this week.

Hon. and Mrs. E. A. Strong attended the commencement exercises of Vassar college at Poughkeepsie, last week, their daughter, Miss Elizabeth, being one of the graduating class.

On Monday the members of the firm known as the Wyalusing Hay company dissolved partnership, the junior member, Guy Ellsworth, retiring. The business of buying and selling coal, hay and the manufacturing of lumber will be carried on by Mr. Ellsworth as in the past. Guy Ellsworth has not yet perfected his plans for the future but will doubtless engage in the manufacture of lumber with headquarters in New York state.

The arrangements are rapidly being perfected for a glorious celebration in Wyalusing on the Fourth. The committee in charge, besides the other attractions, have secured the Ulster base ball team for two games of ball for that day. This team is one of the very best in this section of the state and with the team that will oppose them on the local diamond that day, lovers of good base ball may be assured of a great treat. The other attractions, as fast as they are secured, will be announced later.

News was received in Wyalusing last week of the death of Mrs. George T. Baldwin at her home in New York city, on June 11. She had been in poor health for the past three years. She spent many vacations in this vicinity and has many friends here who will be sorry to learn of her death.

Knights of Pythias Officers.

At a regular meeting of the Towanda Lodge, No. 290, Knights of Pythias, held on Tuesday evening of this week, the following officers were nominated and elected for the ensuing term: C. M. Finney, C. C.; A. D. Dye, V. C.; H. S. Clark, prelate; J. N. Califf, M. of W.; J. H. Orcutt, K. of R. and S.; J. A. Bull, M. of F.; M. C. Gerould, M. of E.; J. H. Millette, M. of A.; O. A. Black, I. G.; W. B. Kelly, O. G.; J. N. Califf, trustee; O. A. Black, representative to Grand Lodge.

Business Men Meet in Wyalusing.

The Merchants' Union Protective association will meet in Wyalusing today. The business meeting will take place at 10 o'clock, after which those present will enjoy a banquet at one of Wyalusing's hotels. In the afternoon there will be a game of base ball between two nines which will furnish the amusement for the merchants after their labor of transacting business for the good of themselves and their patrons.

A Seeming Inconsistency.

Charles E. Hutchinson is always doing something out of the ordinary. His latest stunt is the making of a fireless cooking machine. While we do not doubt the statement that Charles makes in regard to the fireless incubator, yet we would be better satisfied with its merits after we had seen its cooking ability exemplified. Go ahead Charles with another stunt! —LeRaysville Times.

Question of Carriers.

A score or more mail boxes in Wolf township have received no mail this month, the owners refusing to have their mail, which formerly was delivered by R. F. D. carrier No. 4, Hughesville, brought to them by carrier No. 6, Muncy.—Hughesville Mail.

IMPROVEMENTS AT WESAUKING.

Hotel Has Been Thoroughly Renovated and Amusement Pavilion Built.

Thirty-three guests—all from Towanda—look dinner at Lake Wesaucking Hotel last Sunday. These Sunday dinners are to be a feature of this Summer's attractions at the lake.

Although early in the season it is already evident that this beautiful Summer resort is taking on new life and popularity under its new manager, Major Christman. The hotel has been thoroughly renovated and looks span new with its fresh paint and paper. A new and spacious amusement pavilion is being built just West of the hotel and here the guests will find pool tables, base ball and equipment for other popular amusements. A tennis court will be added and new boats and swings provided. The unequalled boating and bathing facilities afforded by the lake are to be made a prominent feature of the season's alterations. The fishing, already good, is to be improved by liberal stocking of the waters with bass fry.

Manager Christman is leaving nothing undone to add to the attractions of Lake Wesaucking and those who have had opportunity to partake of his hospitality speak in terms of praise of his courtesy and careful attention to his guests.

MINISTERS SCARCE.

Presbyterians Find Young Men Are Favoring a Business Life.

An unsolved problem before the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church in session at Kansas City, is the scarcity of men for the ministry. In the discussion some of the speakers blamed state university and other undenominational institutions of learning for turning the thoughts of students from religious to commercial currents.

"With four million Presbyterian communicants," said the Rev. S. W. Sneed of Pittsburg, chairman of the board of education, "we have only 117 in training for the ministry. Many colleges are yielding to the feeling against the ministry by cutting Greek and Latin in curricula as elective courses and man even resent the imputation that they are denominational institutions."

"Fathers and mothers," said Dr. Sneed, "should be taught that it was wrong to take their children to baptism with the mental reservation that they should never enter the ministry."

The Rev. Joseph W. Cochran of New York, corresponding secretary of the board of education, said: "We are getting along with just two-thirds of the supply of ministers that we ought to have. We must either supply untrained men or import them from other denominations."

Just Plain John Greene.

Considerable excitement, and a great amount of nervousness among the fair sex, was exhibited here last week, when it was announced that Lieutenant Hobson, the man who kissed so many girls at one sitting, was in town. Seventy-six of our popular young ladies met on the corner to arrange some sort of a demonstration in his honor, when a member of the Rebekah Lodge, who had been doing a little detective work on her own hook, discovered that the distinguished looking stranger was none other than our own irrepressible John Greene with his whiskers shaved off.—Covington Sun.

Condition is Critical.

The condition of Mrs. R. C. Willis of Scranton, who was injured in an automobile accident on the Dunmore boulevard Sunday evening, is now reported as being critical, and it is feared she will not recover. While the only injuries which have been publicly announced are a fractured collarbone and shoulder blade, Mrs. Willis may also be suffering from undetected internal injuries. She is a heavily built woman, and the shock of the fall from the automobile was unusually severe.

Monroeton Woman an Heiress.

Mrs. Viola Robinson of Monroeton, has fallen heiress to $5,000 through the death of a foster uncle, who recently died in Arkansas. Mrs. Robinson was reared by S. S. Griggs of Standing Stone, and lived in that place for many years, until two years ago when she moved to Monroeton. About Sept. 1, with her husband, Mrs. Robinson will go to Arkansas where they expect to locate.

Ball Player Breaks His Neck.

At a ball game at Punxsutawney, Saturday, Fred Lockhart, aged 20, made a slide for second base and struck the baseman with his head. Lockhart rose to his feet and walked 20 feet to a seat, with his head swinging to one side, and there fell unconscious, and it was found his neck was broken. As the spinal cord was not broken it is thought he will recover.

Not a Passenger.

A peculiar thing is reported from Ithaca. One day this week, train No. 8 on the Lehigh from New York to Chicago, passed through Ithaca without a single passenger on board—a thing which has never before occurred.

Judge Terry.

Judge Charles E. Terry of Wyoming county, is making an enviable record as president judge of the courts, and is a fitting successor to Judge Elwell, Sittser and others who have honored the bench in Wyoming.—Montrose Republican.

Legal Blanks at this office.

REAGAN PUT AWAY.

Typical Tramp Given Ten Months in the Bradford County Jail.

Timothy Reagan, a typical tramp, who has been loitering around Towanda since March, was Thursday arraigned before Squire Meredith on a charge of being a tramp, and on conviction was sentenced to ten months in the county jail.

This seems like a pretty stiff sentence for vagrancy, but it was fully justified under the circumstances. Reagan has been begging and panhandling around town so long that he had come to be an eye sore. He was arrested, given 20 days for begging and on being released went at it again. Since then he has been driven out of town several times only to come back and openly defy the police.

Recently he was escorted across the wagon bridge by Chief Miller and told to never set foot in Towanda again, under penalty of arrest. The chief had hardly re-crossed the bridge when he looked around and saw Reagan at his heels. The culprit laughed and said, "you can't get rid of me; I'm in Towanda to stay, and you can't help yourself." Wednesday night Officer Benedict placed him under arrest, and Thursday morning he was taken before Squire Meredith and arraigned on a vagrancy charge.

Under the "tramp act," Squire Meredith gave him within two months of the extreme penalty, which is one year, and perhaps when Reagan gets out he will be ready to forsake the county seat of Bradford or go to work. He is 23 years of age, weighs 180 pounds and is a splendid specimen of physical manhood, but he won't work.

Tunkhannock Base Ball Association.

The Tunkhannock Base Ball Association was organized last Monday night, and elected the following officers: O. H. Kennedy, president; H. Stanley Harding, secretary and treasurer; and C. W. Hoover, manager. It was decided to run a team during the Summer and to have it composed strictly of Tunkhannock boys. New uniforms and equipment was ordered. From two to three games a week will be played with fast amateur teams, and a series of seven games will be played with Nicholson and Montrose. Season tickets admitting to all games will be sold for $5.

Toytown Cleaners Cleaned.

The Toytown Cleaners and the Knockers held a wondrous swatfest on the East Side grounds yesterday afternoon and when it was all over the Cleaners had been cleaned up to the tune of 15-4. The Knockers had their knock sticks with them and they succeeded in knocking three of the Toytown pitchers out of the box before the carnage was stopped by A. Ryan, who ceased the swatting and running, but at such a late period that the Cleaners never had a look in. Charles Bolan umpired and escaped without a scratch or mark.

Getting Back at Hubby.

A Lehigh county man advertised that he would not be responsible for any debts contracted by his wife, and she reports the next week in the same paper that "he never paid any bills for my clothes or anything else in the 19 years I have been married to him. He is now walking around town wearing a suit of clothes that I paid $15 for."

Will Tour Europe.

Joshua E. Marsden and wife of Philadelphia, sailed yesterday from Hoboken for a trip through Europe. They will visit Germany, Switzerland, Portugal, Italy, France, and England during their trip.

TO DETERMINE GUN QUESTION.

State Game Commission Not Satisfied With Decree of Lower Court.

The state game commission has made every arrangement to carry to the higher courts of the state the case of the commonwealth against Thomas McCombs, charged with unlawfully using an automatic gun for the purpose of killing game in this commonwealth, and in which case the Delaware county court recently held the law unconstitutional, upon the ground that it attempted to interfere with the rights of manufacturers.

Secretary Kalbfus says: "The game commission is perfectly satisfied to have this question determined as speedily as possible, and expresses a hope that in the meantime no one in the state will permit himself to be led into the error through the reading of misleading circulars sent out broadcast through this and other states by men whose sole object seems to be the realization of profits to themselves through the sale of these guns, and who utterly ignore the subject of preservation or protection of game."

Advertised Letters.

List of letters in the Towanda post-office for the week ending June 16, 1908: Ladies—Eagan, Miss Agnes; Johnson, Della; Lewis, Mrs. Hallie; Meek, Mrs. Mary; Ward, Frankie. Gents—Guy, Cristino; Finney, G.; Jennings, S.; Place, Frank; Rhoads, Ernest; Slim, William A.; Vincent, Lloyd; Wight, Norman. These letters will be sent to the dead letter office June 30, unless delivered before. In calling for the same please say "Advertised," giving date of list. D. M. Turner, Postmaster.

Lehigh Takes Action.

The following letter has been received by the management of the Towanda Base Ball association relative to the gathering of people on the railroad track during ball games on the East Side grounds: "Referring to yours of June 8, in regard to the base ball management desiring to keep spectators off our tracks, beg to advise you are at liberty to arrange with one of the local policemen to keep these parties off our property. Yours truly, C. W. Kinney, superintendent, Sayre, Pa."

Marriage Licenses.

Marriage licenses were issued Thursday to George S. Sweet of Wilmet, and Ella Harmon Christy of Winchester, Ky.; Harland Schoonover of Rummelfield, and Gertrude Robinson of Standing Stone.

TOWANDA WON GAME

Defeated Newark Valley Team
on Their Own Ground.

MONROETON WON AT LAQUIN.

Ulster Takes Big Fall Out of Crack
Nichols Swat Artists Who Went Down With Band Playing—Great Diamond Doings.

Saturday was a great day for base ball in which Towandians and other Bradford county people were interested. The Towanda team walloped Newark Valley on their own grounds in a fast ten-inning contest by 2-1 score; Monroeton won from Laquin in an exciting game at Laquin, and Ulster sent Nichols down the decline by a 13-3 tally.

Towanda 2, Newark Valley 1.

The Towanda ball team visited Newark Valley, N. Y., on Saturday and despite the fact that money was being wagered 5-1 on Newark Valley, the lads from the City of Promise threw the tunk into the favorites by a score of 2-1, and incidentally proved to the natives of the York state village that their diamond doers had not been robbed of anything by the umpire while they were in the county seat of Bradford last Tuesday. It was a fast, ten-inning contest, and while the score was a close one, Newark Valley did not have a look in from start to finish, along the lines of straight, scientific base ball.

Michael Barron Madigan, "two-bagger Mike" of other days, was on the gummy gum for Towanda and he shot the ball over the plate so swift that Spaulding's "official" looked like a double B shot, and the Newark Valley boys were simply bewildered. He gave one free ride to first, allowed two scratch hits, and caused ten of the opposing batsmen to chop huge holes in the atmosphere in an endeavor to kiss the sphereoid. Madigan has made no pretense as a pitcher, but he is easily the superior of any man in the county when it comes to tossing curves, and shooting swift ones, as he has more speed than any one working on the diamond in this section at present. He also used the "spit-ball" effectively as the Newark Valley batsmen will verify. In Saturday's game he was all to the good, and simply toyed with the hitters. Bazette was behind the platter, and caught a splendid game.

Newark scored a run in the fifth inning on a base on balls and an error. Towanda scored in the seventh, Madigan getting first on an error, stealing second and third and scoring on Corbett's hit. In the tenth Corbett got a hit, stole second and went over the plate on a two-bagger by Parsons.

Towanda's infield was a veritable stone wall, only one ball getting through which was in the tenth inning. Corbett and Parsons played great ball for the locals both accepting several difficult chances, and Corbett having three singles out of four times up, and Parsons getting two singles and a double out of four times up. Weaver at center and Russell at first, played gilt edge ball as did Smith at second and Turner at third.

In the tenth inning Newark Valley got a man on third and second by an error and a hit, making two men on with no one down, and only one to tie and two to win. Madigan had his head with him in this hole, forcing the man to hit to short who threw to the plate where Bazett got the runner, making one out. The next two struck out, ending the game.

Edmund Turner of State College, was tried at third and proved the right man for the place. Three other men have been tried but gone are in the same class with Turner.

Bazett put up a good game behind the bat having no pass balls and but three stolen bases, one being on his overthrow to second.

Following were the line-ups of the teams: Towanda—Bazett c; Madigan, p; Russell 1b; Smith 2b; Corbett ss; Turner 3b; Macfarland lf; Weaver cf; Parsons rf. Newark Valley—Partridge c; Camp p; Wood 1b; Ricordson 2b; Rawley ss; Monigan 3b; Legg lf; McMahon cf; Swagler rf.

Score by innings:
Newark Valley 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0—1
Summary—Hits off Madigan 4, off Camp 7. Base on balls—by Madigan 1, Camp 0. Struck out—by Madigan 10, Camp 7. Errors—Towanda 2; Newark Valley 4.

Monroeton 9, Laquin 8.

Monroeton defeated Laquin at Laquin Saturday afternoon in an exciting game by the score of 9-8. It was Laquin's game until the ninth when Monroeton, through two hits and three errors on the part of Laquin, run in four scores putting them one tally to the good. Laquin made a desperate effort to tie the score in their half of the ninth but the contest was ended on a third strike with the tying score less than ten feet from the home plate.

Bullock went into pitch for Monroeton, and while he stayed less than five minutes, Laquin made five runs through errors in the supporting cast, Monroeton playing like girls. Bullock allowed but one hit, but things were going toward Laquin so fast that Captain Meredith changed the infield, sent Northrup of Bucknell university fame, to the box, and then there was some base ball. Northrup struck out 17 men and allowed five hits, and played a great game all round.

Meredith led in batting for Monroeton, getting two doubles and two singles out of five times at bat.

Rockwell pitched a good game for Laquin, but was accorded very poor support at critical stages. Jennings played a great game behind the bat for Laquin, and hit the ball safe nearly every time he was up.

A special train from Towanda carried about 150 people, all of whom with the large crowd from Laquin and other places, were well pleased with the game as it was exciting, uncertain and very fast at times. At the beginning of the ninth with the score 8-5 in favor of Laquin, many wagers at odds of 5-2, were made, and considerable money changed hands on the outcome.

Following were the line-ups of the teams: Laquin—E. Rockwell 1b; Jennings c; Dunfee 3b; Fairbanks ss; Burkhardt lf; Trowbridge cf; Eddy and Gale rf; Cook 2b; H. Rockwell p. Monroeton—Meredith 1b; Northrup 3b and p; Dunfee lf and c; Bullock p and 3b; Mingos ss and rf; Miller 2b; Hoblitzell rf and 1b; Scott cf.

Score by innings:
Laquin 5 0 0 2 0 1 0—8
Monroeton 0 0 0 1 2 0 2 0—9
Hits off Rockwell 9; off Bullock 1; off Northrup 5. Base on balls, off Rockwell 2; Northrup 1; Bullock 1. Struck out by Rockwell 7; by Northrup 17. Two-base hits, Meredith 2; Dunfee and Hoblitzell. Errors, Monroeton 5; Laquin 7. Umpire, Baker.

TOWANDA DOWNED MONROETON

Locals Took Interesting Game From Meredith's Aggregation.

Before the largest crowd which has been on the East Side grounds in a long while, Towanda Tuesday afternoon defeated Meredith's Monroeton team by the score of 6-3. The winning runs were scored in the last of the eighth when the locals succeeded in straightening out Northrup's curves for three hits, one being a three sacker by Madigan, a two bagger by Parsons and a single by Bazett. Up until this time it had been anybody's game, with the score tie.

Northrup of Bucknell university was on the rubber for the Monroeton team, and had he been accorded better support there might have been a different story to tell, as he allowed but six safe hits during the entire game. As an evidence of this, Russell struck three times at the ball, reached first safely, stole second and third and scored on a sacrifice hit, where he should have been retired before reaching first base. Two of Towanda's other scores were made on wild throws by Monroeton players. Then with two down, a throw to the plate went wild allowing Madigan to score, where the side should have been retired on an easy out to first.

Canavan, Towanda's new pitcher, while not in good form, held the Monroeton team down to ten hits. Only in the fourth did he show a sign of weakening and then he allowed four safe hits, but only one run crossed the plate. Canavan has the goods, and will be heard from again on Friday when Laquin plays on the East Side grounds.

A typical Monroeton baseball delegation accompanied the team to the county seat and stood loyally by their players until the last man was out. There was considerable kicking on the umpire's decisions, but not one of the close plays decided figured in the outcome of the contest. The most of the objections were made by people who had money wagered on the game. As a whole it was a good exhibition of baseball and every one of the many in attendance got their money's worth.

The following tabulated score will give an idea of the individual work of the two teams:

Ulster Wallops Nichols, The Ulster baseball team trimmed the Nichols, N. Y., team easily at Ulster, on Saturday, score 13-2. Nichols came to Ulster with the intention of putting it all over Ulster but the ending was very sad for them. Davidson of "spit-ball" fame, was tossing for Ulster and he held Nichols in the hollow of his hand. This was the first game this season when he was in first class shape and he had speed to burn and his spitters broke finely and it was funny to see the Nichols batters attempt to hit him. McCarty, for Nichols, pitched nicely but his support was wretched, to say the least. Morrison made one of the longest hits ever seen on the Ulster grounds and easily made the circuit. George Matthews has rejoined Ulster for the balance of the season, and he made his presence felt both at the bat and in the field. The game was a very nice one for three innings but after that it was just a procession. Ulster will play Laquin at Ulster, on Thursday, and a hot game is anticipated. Holcomb umpired the game.

FLOWER MISSION DAY.

Local W. C. T. U. Held an Interesting
Meeting on Saturday.

The monthly meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union was held on Saturday in P. O. S. of A. hall. The opening exercises were conducted by the president, Mrs. Barcus.

It being annual flower mission day the program was arranged with the subject in view. In the absence of the superintendent of flower mission work, Mrs. Lundy, the meeting was conducted by the president in a very pleasing manner. Responsive reading; selected reading by Miss Edna Smiley, showing the good accomplished by the flower mission work among children, the sick and hardened men and women. Then followed a duet by Misses Lament and Ellenberger. Mrs. Rooker read an article from the "Union Signal," telling "How the White Ribboners Welcomed the Fleet."

It gave a detailed account of the efforts made by the California W. C. T. U. to benefit the sailors on the visit of the American battleship fleet to the Pacific coast. It told of their success in limiting the use of intoxicants by the men of the fleet, the omission of alcoholic drinks at the various banquets and dinners in their honor, and the supplying of a large amount of reading matter for the men on their long voyage around the world. A "rest room" headquarters was established and it was largely patronized by the men of the fleet. Much good was accomplished by the energetic "White Ribboners."

The meeting was closed by the reading of the report on flower mission work for the year, a prayer by Mrs. Houghton and the W. C. T. U. benediction.

Commandments of Motherhood.

I. Thou shalt not frighten thy child by threats of punishment.

II. Thou shalt not visit thine own disappointment upon thy child, nor speak to him sharply without just cause.

III. Thou shalt not administer any rebuke while feeling anger toward thy child.

IV. Thou shalt not require more of thy child than of thyself.

V. Thou shalt not speak discourteously to thy child.

VI. Thou shalt not lie to thy child, neither break thy promises, nor deceive.

VII. Thou shalt not waste thyself upon the effort to destroy evil tendencies and wrong activities in thy child, but shall remove temptation from him, and cultivate his virtues and his righteous activities.

VIII. Thou shalt not curtail thy child's liberty, but shalt insist that he respect the liberty of all others, even as his is respected.

IX. Many hours shalt thou labor with thy child and do all thy work, dressing him, feeding him, teaching him, amusing him; but for one hour out of every seven waking hours shalt thou let him alone, and bother him not, neither thou, nor thy husband, nor thy nurse maid, nor thy friends, nor thy relatives, nor any that are in thy house. For in that hour shall, the Lord come unto him.

X. Thou shalt not force thy child in any respect, neither physically, mentally nor morally. Thou shalt not force obedience, for forced obedience is not righteous; but thou shalt gently lead thy child along the way that he should go, having first passed over the road thyself.—Mother's Journal.

June 9, 1908, will be remembered as the sad passing away of Alvah M. Cornell, of Columbia grange. Brother Cornell was one of the first members of this grange and was always ready to do whatever work was assigned for him to do. During many years he was a faithful state deputy, inspecting the granges with care, always urging and encouraging the members to do their best to strengthen the order.

A class of four received the third and fourth degrees at Open Hand grange on the 9th inst. Degree team officiating. Children's Day was remembered on the 23d. A fine program and strawberries with cream occupied the attention of the many present.

Several of the granges of Bradford county have printed programs for the year. The practice is a good one. There are no lecturers' manuals but the state and national lecturers give good instructions concerning lecturers' work in the state and national grange papers. The national lecturers' articles are found in the national grange paper nearly every week.

The light of each grange may be the light of others if brief news items are sent for this column. This column is a good place in which to exchange ideas.

Yes, indeed, the Pomona should unite on "lines of work, studies, experiments, measures, etc.," but it must have a home of its own before it can be as business-like as it ought to be.

Truly a system of traveling libraries for the Pomona district would be a fine thing "if it were what it should be in make up." Suggestions as to how, are in order.

It is pleasing to know that some of the brothers want to write to Rev. S. B. Bidlack, Muncy Valley, to get information about the "photo slides" giving description of split log drag and picture of road made in proper shape. Those who failed to attend the last session of Pomona missed a good thing on the good road question.

Our grange column scrap book contains all items from Sept. 18, 1902, to the present, and is very handy for reference, being complete for whole publication.

We are indebted to Brother H. G. Newell, Rome, for queries and suggestions. Come again, brother.

We are always pleased to receive short items of grange news, valuable grange clippings or thoughts on important grange work. Partisan politics or sectarian views are just outside the "gate" of our field.

In June, "the month of roses," it requires a most judicious expert to make a thorough success of either farm or grange efforts. Constant tillage of soil and constant culture of the mind are essential to secure hoped-for reward. A good hoe and a willing mind with plenty of elbow muscle may work wonders in a cornfield. But, does it not seem a little strange that the corn is sometimes forgotten and the mind wanders away to consider the "why and how" of a fine specimen of dictyophyton tuberosum (Chemung fossil sponge) that has been "upturned" by the hoe?

When this is the case, hoeing becomes automatic and perchance hours pass with the mind of the operator intent on reading the history of the cobblestones of granite, sandstone, gypsum, limestone, conglomerate, shales, etc., representatives of nearly all of the geological ages from the Archæan to the coal measures. Thus many a hard day's work is made light, caused by the variety of thought produced by a knowledge of the fossils as recorded of the life growth of more than 20 miles thickness of the Palæozoic rocks of the Appalachian mountain system. The lessons of evolution found entombed and transcribed on the rocky page help to satisfy the laborer's desire to know the why for much of nature's work. At times he is very much interested to know that very many of the cobblestones of his cornfield were deposited during the glacial age when a vast field of moving ice and rocks helped grind up the hardened surface, rounding the hills and mountain tops to fill the vast chasms made by the breaking up of the crust of the earth to form the great Appalachian mountain system. Lessons for thought and investigation may be found at any time, by the inquiring mind, that would be of much interest in the grange program. Co-operative work is needed to drive dull care from a grange room that is not well ventilated. The best thoughts during the day's work should be preserved and presented to the grange under the head of "Good of the Order."

It is conceded by scientists that the geological groups of the earth, combined, have a thickness of at least 25 miles. Agriculturists are tilling the soil of almost every acre of this thickness. The variety of soils is so varied that it requires a vast amount of knowledge to be able to get profitable returns for labor expended, but every farmer should study the nature and possibilities of his own farm.

Although it took many millions of years to make the earth with its endless number and variety of seed beds, yet in a much less space of time all have become inhabited in accordance with the laws of animal life carried on by evolution. The grange manual beautifully illustrates nature's laws in the propagation of vegetable and animal species. It is well worthy of a close study by every member of the Order of Patrons of Husbandry.

TEN NEW COMMANDMENTS.

Which Should Be Observed by the Public in General.

Here are ten new commandments from the Wellsboro Gazette, which should be obeyed by the public in general:

I. Thou shalt not go away from home to do thy shopping, nor thy wife, nor thy sons, nor thy daughters.

II. Thou shalt patronize thine own merchants; that they shall not be driven from their home to find food for their children.

III. Thou shalt patronize thine own merchant and also the printer and they shall patronize thee.

IV. Thou shalt pay thy bills promptly that thy credit may be good in the land where thou dwellest, and thy neighbors greet thee gladly, then deposit thy surplus in home banks.

V. Thou shalt not knock the props from under thine own town in order to be revenged on thine enemy lest thou perish with him.

VI. Thou shalt not incline thine ear to the voice of pride, nor permit vanity to overcome thy heart.

VII. Thou shalt spend thine earnings at home, that they may return whence they came and give nourishment to such as come after thee.

VIII. Thou shalt not bear false witness against the town where thou dwellest, but speak well of it in the ears of all men.

IX. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's seed wheat nor his meat hog, nor his cow, nor the corn which is in his crib, but whatsoever thou desirest thou shalt pay the price thereof in the coin of the realm.

X. Thou shalt keep these commandments and teach them to thy children unto the third and fourth generation, that they may be made to flourish and wax rich while thou art laid to rest with thy fathers.

INJURIES PROVE FATAL.

Miss Mary Conwell Dies as Result of Automobile Accident.

Miss Mary E. Conwell, who with Mrs. R. C. Willis, a sister of Rev. J. J. Corcoran of Towanda, who was injured in an automobile accident near Elmhurst boulevard, last Sunday afternoon, died at 7:45 o'clock Friday night, at the home of her father, William Conwell, in Scranton.

Miss Conwell had been confined to her bed since the accident, but the fact that she was at all seriously hurt was not made public by the family or by the attending physician. In fact, on the Monday following the mishap, it was discovered by Dr. Lewis Frey, who was called, that Miss Conwell was suffering from internal injuries which were extremely severe. Her recovery from the moment of this discovery on, was only a matter of hope. Dr. Frey, with Dr. Reed Burns, who was brought into consultation on the case, gave no assurances of recovery. Mrs. Willis, who sustained a fractured shoulder-blade in her fall out of the automobile as it plunged down an embankment, is still at the Copplinger sanitarium in Scranton, and her condition is by no means encouraging.

Base Ball at Wells.

Last week an account appeared of a seven inning ball game at Wells between the old men, players of 20 years ago, and the gay young nine of Wells. A correspondent says the latter grew discouraged at the end of the seventh inning and bolted, claiming foul plays. The old men were at bat with two men on bases and nobody out, when the first nine donned their overalls and pulled for the hill. It is alleged they lacked experience, and the score stood: Old men, six innings, 13; Wells No. 1, seven innings, 13.

Air Tanks Burst.

With a terrific roar and a violent concussion that shook the Lehigh Valley power house in Sayre to its very base and was felt and heard throughout the town the four compressed air reservoirs in the power house exploded at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. Two men were in the base a few seconds before the explosion, but they departed just in time to escape certain death. A large hole was torn in the concrete floor, the roof was damaged, and the loss will amount to several thousand dollars.

Sayre Liquor Store Closed.

The wholesale liquor store of Elmer A. Wilbur in Sayre was closed yesterday morning by Deputy Sheriff John Griffin. The action was taken on a judgment for nearly $5,000 obtained by J. S. Shoemaker, one of the officers of the Dotted Brewery company of whom Mr. Wilbur for a long time purchased beer and ale.

WINDFALL IN OLD LOG BOOM.

The State May Be Able to Claim
$1,000,000 in Sunken Logs.

A windfall equivalent perhaps to $1,000,000 may come to the state when the old log boom, between DuBois town and Nippono park, in the West Branch, is demolished at the close of the present logging season. Within the limits of the ten miles of cribs millions upon millions of feet of pine, oak and hemlock timber lie embedded in the sand and mud of the river bottom—the accumulation of nearly half a century's derelict sticks. Who is to have claim to this has become a question of interest and of riches to be had.

The Pennsylvania forests of Clearfield, Cameron and Potter counties yielded pine trees as fine as ever cut anywhere, and a hundred of these if they be found lodged in the river bed, would pay for the dredging of the entire boom space. In Cameron county but a few days ago the Central Lumber company got $600 worth of lumber out of a single pine tree, and at this rate the old boom promises a golden yield.

But the very interesting question arises to whom does this sunken lumber belong? At no time have the logs been the property of the Susquehanna Boom company, whose corporate functions are only to catch, hold and deliver to their rightful owners all floating logs, levying therefore a certain salvage. Some of these old logs, when they have been raised, will have on them the mill marks of firms and individuals that have long since gone to their reward, and the contention is made that the profit from these must revert to the state. If he work of recovering the sunken logs is once begun the probability is that there will be a keen lookout for sticks bearing the marks of owners who are still living and who hope to reap a late-day harvest from the long-lost derelicts.

JAMES S. SHERMAN.

Short Sketch of the Republican
Nominee for Vice-President.

James Schoolcraft Sherman, the nominee for Vice-President, is a resident of Utica, N. Y., and was born there in 1855. He received an academic and collegiate education, graduating from Hamilton college in 1878.

Was admitted to the bar in 1880. He is a practicing lawyer and is president of the Utica Trust and Deposit company, and president of the New Hartford Canning company. Has been mayor of Utica, a delegate to the Republican National convention in 1892, chairman of New York State Republican congress committee in 1906. Has been a member of the 50th, 51st, 53d, 54th, 55th, 56th, 57th, 58th, 59th and 60th congresses.

He has always been an active Republican and stands well with his party leaders. He has been chairman in congress of the Indiana Affairs committee and a member of the Interstate and Foreign Commerce and Rules committees.

"Gentlemen:

"Yours of the 17th inst. received. Also in the same mail I received your New Home Wall Chart, quite a surprise as I had not expected it. It is very nice and is all you claim for it in value and utility. I hardly see how you can afford to make such a valuable present to your subscribers and furnish the Journal so cheap; 56 columns of solid print, and general news and important selected matter suitable to the time and locality. To one of ordinary business ability like 'yours truly,' it seems that you must have money to burn, or have an attack of 'brain storm' of kindness generosity towards your subscribers that would bankrupt ordinary mortals and send them on the road to the poor house. I am not giving you taffy but facts as I see them, but I suppose you are as sure of your ground as Taft is of the nomination for president and that is quite certain. Please accept my thanks for the generous gift and believe me as ever,

Slight Changes in Timetable.

But slight changes were made in the Lehigh timetable which became effective Sunday. Train No. 4, east, bound, will leave Towanda at 1:04 p. m., instead of 1:20. Train No. 157, westbound, the morning newspaper train will hereafter be known as No. 11, and will run on the same time as heretofore 10:50 a. m., at the upper station. This train stops at East Towanda, and connects with the Bernice branch morning train. The westbound milk train will leave the upper station at 1:06 p. m., and will carry passengers to local stations, in case the Bernice branch is too late to make connections with TREATMENT FOR HOG CHOLERA.

A conference that bids fair to be of more than ordinary value to the hog raisers of the country was held at the Iowa Agricultural college the latter part of May. The department at Washington was represented by Secretary James Wilson and two eminent animal disease specialists from the animal husbandry department. The conference took place on a farm which has been used as a hog cholera experiment station for several years. As the result of years of experimental work the department has developed a method of treating hog cholera which is effective in saving a large per cent of hogs in affected herds. The method of treatment consists in inoculating hogs with a serum taken from animals which have died from the disease, much in the same way that human beings are rendered immune to smallpox by vaccination. The work of the federal department has been confirmed in experiments conducted by the Minnesota and Missouri stations. As instances of the effectiveness of this serum treatment it is stated that in a number of herds which were treated and afterward exposed to cholera contagion only 7 per cent of the treated animals died, while the loss among the untreated herds was 64 per cent. In herds which had been exposed to the disease, but were not sick at the time of treatment, 4 1/2 per cent of the treated and 80 per cent of the untreated animals died. In other herds in which the disease had already broken out before treatment began the loss among treated hogs was 13 1/2 per cent and among untreated hogs 74 per cent. The chief point which was considered by this conference on hog cholera was the most feasible plan for supplying the serum used in the treatment to the hog raisers of the country. Secretary Wilson's idea being that this can be most effectively done by the several state experiment stations. Representatives from different states were present at the conference and were given opportunity to witness in actual operation the method of producing the serum and applying the treatment. If the conference shall be as productive of results as is hoped a long step will have been taken toward relieving the farmers from a source of loss that at times has been enormous.

TUBERCULOSIS BACILLI.

Circular No. 127, issued by the department of animal husbandry at Washington, contains an interesting summary of a series of experiments which have been carried on with a view to ascertaining how long tuberculosis germs will keep their vitality in dairy butter made and kept under average conditions. The butter used in the test was made from the milk of a tuberculous infected animal, different portions of the product being kept for different lengths of time and then used as a means for inoculating fifty guinea pigs. All of these died within a given period of time, the test showing that some of the animals died from inoculation with butter that had been kept under ordinary conditions four and a half months, which proved conclusively that the tuberculosis bacilli kept their vitality during that length of time. This experiment as it becomes known will simply add to the diligence which city boards of health are already exercising in the matter of examining carefully into the sources of supply of milk, cream and butter furnished their constituents.

INOCULATING FOR ALFALFA.

Those in the alfalfa sections of the country have found by experiments with both methods that better results are obtained in getting a start with alfalfa by inoculating the field to be sown with soil from an old and well established field than by the use of the widely advertised and not always reliable nitro-cultures. Since the land for alfalfa should be well enriched with manure before sowing the seed the best plan for inoculating the land seems to be to scatter several shovelfuls of the inoculated soil through the manure as it is put on the spreader, whence it is thoroughly scattered over the ground as the manure is spread. The field should be thoroughly disked and harrowed and put in the best of tillage after the fertilizer and inoculated soil is applied. Where there is not an established field of alfalfa in the neighborhood from which the soil referred to can be secured that taken from spots where the wild sweet clover grows will answer the same purpose, as the same type of bacteria work in the root systems of each plant.

HOGS AND TUBERCULOSIS.

The likelihood of infection with tuberculosis in the case of hogs following cattle known to be infected with the disease has been very effectively demonstrated in recent experiments which have been conducted at the Iowa experiment station. A bunch of twenty-six hogs were placed in a feed lot to follow cattle which were known to be infected with tuberculosis and a like number put after cattle which were not affected with the disease. At the close of a given period all the hogs in both lots were killed. In the first bunch twenty-one were found badly infected with tuberculosis, while in the second case, where they followed healthy cattle, not one showed any signs of the disease. With from 20 to 50 per cent of the dairy cows of the country having tuberculosis and with hogs following the great majority of these diseased animals, the alarming spread of tuberculosis among the swine of the country is not difficult to trace.

TESTED AND PROVEN.

There is a Heap of Solace in Being Able to Depend Upon a Well-Earned Reputation.

For months Towanda readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills, and read about the good work they have done in this locality. Not another remedy ever produced such convincing proof of merit.

J. A. Campbell, living at 104 Pine street, Towanda, Pa., says: "I have the greatest confidence in Doan's Kidney Pills. Some years ago I had occasion to use them for backaches, and pains through my loins and they gave me perfect satisfaction. In 1904 I gave a statement for publication, telling of the great relief I had derived from their use. I have appealed to them on several occasions since and they always gave me the most satisfactory results. I always keep Doan's Kidney Pills on hand and it gives me great pleasure at this time to reiterate all I previously said in their favor."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

HOME-COMING FRIDAY

Historical Society Will Welcome Absent Sons and Daughters.

WILMOT PORTRAIT UNVEILING

Surviving Friends of Bradford County's Distinguished Statesman Have Provided Fine Likeness of Author of the "Wilmot Proviso."

The "Home Day," under the auspices of the Historical society, will be held on Friday, and it is important that the people of Towanda, especially, and the county generally, take an interest in this meeting as it may determine whether the project of holding such a meeting on a more extensive scale, covering a number of days, in the future, will be advisable. This one day's meeting will determine the interest by the people at home in such a meeting for the future. A "Home-Coming" is contemplated for the future, if the proper interest and spirit is shown at the meeting on Friday of this week.

Officers and committees will be at the society's rooms at 10 a. m. to meet and greet any and all comers. At 2 p. m. the meeting will be called to order by the president, John C. Ingham, who will welcome the "home-comers" by an address. Hon. J. H. Coddington and others will respond. It is hoped that every township and borough in the county will be represented.

The committee having charge of the music will provide vocal and other music. A committee of ladies will serve lemonade to those who may be thirsty. The residents of Towanda should invite their friends to come to this meeting, throw open their homes and bid them welcome.

Portrait Unveiling.
A feature of the "Old Home" day program will be the unveiling of a fine large portrait of the late David Wilmot, Bradford county's distinguished statesman. This portrait has been secured through contributions of the now living friends and acquaintances of the author of the world famed "Wilmot Proviso," and will be placed on the wall of the Historical society rooms.

Following the unveiling of this portrait speeches will be made by several people who knew and were associated with Wilmot. This will be one of the big features of Friday afternoon.

"Old People's Day."

The "Old People's Day," under the auspices of the Bradford County Historical society, to be held here on Saturday, June 27, is the fifth of the same character, and promises to be as great a success as its predecessors, both in interest, attendance, and the "doings" of the "old people," who will appear as performers on the program.

The afternoon meeting will be held in Mercier hall, and the old folks 70 years and upwards will be given seats on the platform, or in the front row. Admission to the hall will be by ticket; preference in the distribution of tickets will be as follows: Members of the society, old people and their attendants, those taking any part in the program of exercises, contributors to the funds, and public generally.

This is done to avoid the crowding that has arisen when the meeting was held in the court house, and when the hall is filled, no more will be admitted, in order that those present can see and hear the program with comfort.

A committee with able assistants will be at the foot of the stairs leading to Mercier hall, to assist any old people, to the hall and a seat on the platform.

C. L. Stewart in charge of the autos will form the parade of all the "horseless carriages" in Towanda and vicinity and give all the old folks who wish to, the "ride of their life," in the forenoon, so that all will return for dinner. The meeting in the afternoon will be called to order by the president, J. C. Ingham, promptly at 2 o'clock. The Smithfield male quartet will furnish some of their oldtime vocal music. Isaiah Potter, of Athens, a noted vocalist of years ago, will render vocal solos. Mrs. Mahoney of Sheshequin, will again show how they danced when she was young. The "old time hunter" will also be exhibited with his old gun.

Captain Kilmer with his band of veterans, and "first defenders" will drill, sing their war songs and show "how it was done" during the war. A. T. Lilley, one of the oldest teachers will also ask for a volunteer "class in spelling," using words as found in the old Cobb's spelling book. Some "old timers" will perform on the flax brake, swingle, hetchel and the spinning wheel. Mrs. John O'Boyle, the widow of one of the noted crew of the Kearsarge, that sunk the Alabama, will recite a poem, written by C. L. Ward, Esq., for a noted occasion held in Towanda in 1835, "When This Country Was New." Mart Cranmer of North Towanda, who knows and can sing old and new songs "all night," will be in attendance and vocalize whenever called upon.

Each "youngster" over 70 years young present, will be given a badge as a memento of this meeting, and the oldest male will win a valuable cane, and the oldest female will be awarded a silver cup.

Notice to Wysox Citizens.

All parties interested in the new road from Wysox to Lake Wesaukang are requested to meet on the road on Thursday morning. Fred C. White, road supervisor.

ST. AGNES GRADUATES

Twelve Young People Complete Studies in Parochial School

COMMENCEMENT LAST NIGHT.

St. Agnes Auditorium Packed to the Doors With Patrons and Friends of the Splendid Catholic School—Excellent Entertainment.

Wednesday evening was a memorable one for 12 Towanda young people, six young ladies and six young men, as it marked the close of their studies in the St. Agnes Parochial school on Third street. The annual commencement exercises of this splendid school were held last evening, and when the program started at 8 o'clock every seat in the spacious auditorium of the handsome school building was occupied by patrons and friends of the school.

The stage was handsomely decorated with flags and bunting, the class flag hanging suspended in the center. The class colors are purple and canary, those tints being carried out in the decorating scheme, making a scene of great beauty, showing the touch of an artistic, lavish hand. The class motto, "Launched, but Whither Bound," also occupied a conspicuous place on the stage, as did a large bouquet of pink roses, the class emblem.

On the stage during the salutatory, presentation of medals and diplomas, and valedictory periods were the members of the graduating class, namely: Thomas Francis Carroll, Arthur Joseph Carroll, Joseph John Keating, John Patrick Crimmins, Charles Francis Barrett, James Arthur Carron, Katherine Eleanor Ronan, Anne Louise Gorman, Marguerite Adelaide Connolly, Emma Frances Hurley, Margaret Agatha McDugan, and Winifred Agatha McMahon; also Rev. J. J. Coroner, pastor of the Church of St. Peter and Paul, and Monsignor Coffey of Carbondale.

Rev. Father Ruddy, the Sisters of Mercy, Rev. Father Brennan, secretary to Bishop Hoban, and a number of other priests occupied front seats in the auditorium.

This year there were no reading of essays and orations by the graduates. Miss Anne Gorman was the salutatorian, and Miss Katherine Ronan was the valedictorian. Both acquitted themselves gracefully, and with great credit to themselves and the school. Right Rev. Monsignor Coffey of Carbondale, made the presentation of diplomas and medals to the graduates, and at the close of the program he delivered an address which was listened to closely by the large audience.

As is customary in the local Parochial school, a feature of the commencement exercises is a program of music and literature, and this year there was something out of the ordinary in this line.

The music for the occasion was furnished by the St. Agnes orchestra composed of students in the school, viz: Violins—Paul Cullinan, Charles Kirk, Frank Bolan, Miles Holcomb, Elmer McCracken; cornets, Ed. Lynch, John Allen; clarinet, Wayne Irving; drum, Maurice Allen; piano, Helen Kirwan.

The entertainment program consisted of excellent piano solos by Helen Kirwan, Joseph Keating, Florence Sullivan, Loretta Buckley, Teresa McMahon, and Elizabeth Fitzgerald; songs by Nellie Schuman, M. Keating, Margaret Foyle, Nellie Schuman. A pleasing number of the vocal section of the program was the "King Laughter" song by the juveniles.

Other exceptionally good numbers was the recitation, "I Am Captain of the Nine," by Master John Graham, "Revel of the Naiads," by the senior girls, fancy drill by the St. Agnes guards, "Merry Dairy Maids," by the intermediate girls, a violin solo by Sylvia Marks, musical sketch by John Crimmins, Joseph Keating, Thomas Carroll and James Carron, scarf fantasia by young ladies, and a fairyland cantata, entitled "Lost in Fairyland."

Every number on the long and varied program was encoored, showing that the audience appreciated the cleverness and work of the entertainers.

The Sisters of Mercy are entitled to great credit, not only for their tireless efforts in assisting the senior class to the goal of school success, but also for their labors in training and preparing the pupils of the school for their various parts in the entertainment which was far the best ever given in St. Agnes school.

At the close of the exercises, the annual banquet of the Alumni was held in the dining room of the school building.

The Fourth at Laquin.
A big Fourth of July celebration will be held at Laquin by the Red Men and P. O. S. of A. There will be dancing in the Laquin hall day and night, foot races, wheelbarrow races, sack race, fat men's race, etc. Two ball games between two of the strongest teams in Bradford county. Big street parade by P. O. S. of A. and Red Men. Picnic grounds, big swings. Dinners will be served on the grounds and refreshments of all kinds. Music will be furnished by the Laquin Citizens' band.

AUTOS ARE NOT BARRED.
Luzerne Court Hands Down Very Important Decision.

In an opinion handed down by Judge John Lynch of Wilkes-Barre, in the suit of W. W. Scranton of Scranton, against the Laurel Run Turnpike company, it was declared that autos have the same rights on the boulevard as other vehicles.

Last October Mr. Scranton took occasion to use the boulevard on an auto trip. When he reached the turnpike, he was challenged and told that the turnpike company did not allow autos to run over the road. Mr. Scranton insisted he had the same right as other vehicular traffic and brought suit. The decision will be of interest to all motorists throughout the state, as many turnpikes refuse to allow autos to run over their roads.

State A. O. H. Secretary Here.
Mr. McGuinness, state secretary of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, made a fraternal visit to the Towanda division on Tuesday evening of this week. Following the regular business meeting, President J. O. Baker in a few well chosen words introduced the guest of honor, whereupon Mr. McGuinness took the floor and made a very excellent address. He talked fluently and learnedly of Hibernianism alluding to the high standing of the order at the present time, telling the amount that had been paid out for charity and for the betterment of humanity. He complimented the members of the Towanda division for the neatness of their headquarters and urged them to leave nothing undone until Division No. 2, of Towanda, stood at the head of the divisions of the state. Mr. McGuinness is a splendid speaker and he greatly impressed his hearers. While in Towanda he was the guest of the local division and was quartered at the Kinney hotel, where he was excellently cared for by Minehost James Kinney.

Strawride to Stevens' Grove.
A jolly crowd of young people went to Stevens' grove on a strawride Wednesday evening. Those in the party were the Misses Marguerite Holcomb, Ellen Pratt, Charlotte McCabe, Susan Stryker, Dorothy Passage, Beth Lilley, Frances Parsons, Catherine Osborne, Collette Passage, Molly Camp, Virginia Frost, and Messrs. Russell Pratt, Carl Shiner, Guy Holcomb, Hale Coddington, Ulysses Holmes, Ben Hale, Brewster Ruggles and Joseph Pratt.
